

WARNING SENT TO SMALL BANKS

Indianapolis Police See Evidence of Another Outbreak Following Attempts Wednesday Night

FAILURE IN THREE TOWNS

Indianapolis Taxi Driver Tells Story
at Seymour Bearing on Looting of Charlottesville Bank

(By United Press)

Indianapolis, Ind., April 17—Police today sent out a warning to small banks throughout the state to watch out for robbers tonight.

The warning was based on attempted bank robberies at Pine Village, Jolietville and Rosstown last night. Rosstown and Jolietville are about 25 miles northeast of Indianapolis.

In all three cases, the robbers gained entry to the banks, but were frightened away before they had succeeded in opening the vaults.

The police also interpreted the theft of an acetelyn gas tank and an electric drill outfit from a local machine shop as a sign of coming yegg activity.

Seymour, Ind., April 17—A story of being kidnapped by bank bandits and held captive for nearly 24 hours most of which he was unconscious, was told police here today by Gene Hinton, Indianapolis taxicab driver.

Police linked Hinton's story with the $2,000 bank robbery at Charlottesville, Ind., yesterday.

Hinton staggered into police headquarters early today and told police he took three men passengers in Indianapolis yesterday morning who told him they wanted to drive about ten miles in the country.

He said he drove the men east of Greenfield and suddenly the trio overpowered him, bound and gagged him and then drove on.

A little later they stopped in a small town, Hinton said. He was in the bottom of the car and could not see exactly where they were. Two men got out and in a short time returned and threw money in the back compartment and the auto drove rapidly on.

The next thing he remembers, Hinton said, he was losing consciousness. He did not know whether he was slugged or drugged.

When he came to, the auto was parked at the side of a road near Seymour. The men were counting money. They threw him out of the car and told him to "beat it." He walked into town and notified police.

He is held pending the arrival of Indianapolis police to question him.

Phone Girl Saves Day

Attica, Ind., April 17—Safe blowers attempting to crack the safe of the bank at Pine Village, 14 miles north of here, were frightened away early today by Mrs. Sam Fenton, telephone operator.

Mrs. Fenton saw a light in the bank from her post in the telephone

TUESDAY WILL BE A BUSY DAY FOR STECH

Two Suits Scheduled For Trial by Justice of Peace, Including Unusual Account Suit

ONE CASE FOR POSSESSION

Two suits have been set for trial in Justice Stech's court on next Tuesday. In the case of Ed Miller against John Thompson, a suit on an account filed last week, in which the plaintiff demanded judgment, the defendant has now filed a cross-complaint and a set-off in which he demands judgment from the plaintiff in the sum of $195.

The cross-complaint is in three paragraphs, and alleges that instead of owing the plaintiff, that the plaintiff owes him, and an itemized account is filed with the action. The case will be heard at 1:30 in the afternoon.

William M. Blackledge is plaintiff in a suit filed against Lon Row, for possession of property in Union township, and with the demand for $10 damages. This case will be heard on that day at 9 o'clock.

SCHOOL ARE GUESTS

Indiana State Library
Township Principals Entertain
Kiwanis Club Today

The high school principals of the schools of Rush county were the guests today at the weekly luncheon of the Kiwanis club, when they became acquainted with the local club members and made quite an impression with them as executives of the schools.

All of the high school principals were in attendance excepting three, who were detained at their schools. Each gave a short talk, pointing out the good things as well as the other things that an educator has to meet in his daily vocation.

The principals remained in Rushville this afternoon for their regular session with county school superintendent B. D. Farthing.

COOLIDGE TO SPEAK ON CAMPAIGN ISSUES

Will Make Plain Unfrilled Statement
When he Addresses Newspaper
Editors Next Week

TO OFFER HIS PRINCIPLES

By LAWRENCE MARTIN

Washington, April 17—President Coolidge intends to make a plain unfrilled statement of the issues of the presidential campaign as he sees them when he addresses newspaper editors in New York next week.

It is desirable in Mr. Coolidge's opinion that the public be always informed as to what it may expect from him and his administration, providing they are returned to power. He has clear ideas of the issues and both he and his advisors agree that there is no reason why the president should not at once take a definite stand upon them.

Nothing new or startling need be of principals in the forthcoming speech.

The principal issue, as the president sees it, is whether the country is to have stability, or instability; ordered and evenly proceeding government or hodge podge government pulled at cross purposes by numerous groups. His whole appeal will be for setting things in order so that the country can "settle down" to a period of quiet and calm.

CARL MORRIS WILL BE BURIED IN EAST HILL

Remains of Singer, Who Died in San Diego, Will Reach Home of Parents Sunday

FUNERAL MONDAY MORNING

The body of Carl Morris, former Rush county boy who died suddenly at San Diego, California, late Monday, will arrive at Greenfield, where his parents live, at 11:40 o'clock Sunday morning, according to John H. Morris, the father, who was here today making local arrangements for the funeral.

The remains will be taken to the Morris home in Greenfield and funeral services will be held there Monday morning at nine o'clock, following which the cortege will drive to Rushville for interment in East Hill cemetery. Short services will be held at East Hill chapel as soon as the cortege arrives, which will be about eleven o'clock. Friends may view the remains at the Morris home in Greenfield Sunday afternoon.

A letter written by the deceased last Friday was received by his parents Wednesday. Although he had not been well, as the result of an attack of the influenza during the past winter, Mr. Morris said nothing in his letter about being worse, and apparently was very cheerful. His parents had attempted to persuade him to come home after he recovered from the influenza, but he had decided to wait until the latter part of next month. Further details regarding his death, which was sudden, are expected in a few days.

Mr. Morris had made a name for himself as a baritone soloist.

REHEARSING NOW FOR CLASS PLAY

Rushville Seniors Have Selected
"Daddy Long Legs" And Will Give
it Two Nights

AT ANNEX APRIL 24-25

Its Human Appeal and Wholesome
Humor Will Make it a Delight to
The Audiences

Rehearsals for Daddy Long Legs, which will be presented April 24-25 at the Graham Annex by members of the Senior class of the high school, are now in progress. Miss Hamrick, who is coaching the seniors' presentation, reports very favorably the work that is being done and the splendid spirit and enthusiasm displayed by those taking part.

The play is not new. The story, Daddy Long Legs, first appeared in letter form serially, in the Ladies' Home Journal. Later it was dramatized and had a successful run in New York with Ruth Chatterton in the role of Judy. Later, Mary Pickford starred in a screen version. Well known as it is, the play is not one to be forgotten. Its human appeal and wholesome humor will make it a delight to audiences as long as there are plays.

In the seniors' presentation of the play, Jean Herkless will play Judy, with Douglas Morris as Daddy Long Legs. Others in the cast are: Beulah Phillips, Rena Mae Norris, Mildred Retherford, Margaret Oster, Hazel Dugle, Mary Elizabeth Beale, Virginia Hogsett, Helen Spivey, John Kendall, Wallace Comer, Walter Eakins, William Blackledge, Francis Mattox, Elizabeth Manning and Dorothy Becraft.

Tickets for the two performances are now selling and are in the hands of grade and high school students.

TROUBLE IS SMOULDERING

Importing of Strikebreakers at Harlan, Ky., May Cause it to Flare

Harlan, Ky., April 17—Trouble was smoldering there today with 3,000 miners idle and the largest mine threatening to bring in non-union workers.

There was nothing definite to indicate when strikebreakers will be brought in, but it is understood labor brokers in the north are hiring the men and are arranging to ship them to the Kentucky coal fields this week or next.

Both sides are settling down for a long strike.

Woman With "Fatherless" Children Gets "Easy" Money

A strange woman with two alleged fatherless children gathered up several dollars with a story of poverty and distress, Wednesday, but before she got out of the city, she was seen to join a man in an automobile. The pair escaped before anything was done to punish them for begging.

The woman went about the streets with her children, asking for small change. She said she and the children were traveling through the country when the wagon they were using broke, and they had no money to have it repaired. Few questioned her story and nearly everyone who heard it gave her 10 or 15 cents. It is estimated that she made quite a haul.

One of the men who "donated" saw her sitting in an automobile with a man, near a gasoline-filling station, where they had been spending some of their "easy" money.

NEXT CONFERENCE TO BE HELD HERE

American Legion Will Hold Important Sessions Here This Summer For District Chapter

AT CENTERVILLE YESTERDAY

The next Sixth District conference for the American Legion, will be held in Rushville, according to a decision reached at the conference held in Centerville, Wayne county, Wednesday, and which was attended by representatives of Rush Post 150.

The conference to be held here either the last week of July or the first part of August, is regarded as an important one, because it will be the last session before the state convention August 25-27, and several legislative matters will be brought up here.

At the conference in Centerville yesterday, John H. Kiplinger, commander of the local post and also State Judge Advocate of the Legion, was among those who attended, and he was accompanied by Thomas Saunders, local adjutant, and Samuel L. Trabue.

At the meeting yesterday several general questions were taken up concerning the rehabilitation and aid for the ex-service men. Plans for a membership campaign also were discussed and further plans will be taken up on several questions when the conference is held in this city.

LATIN WINNERS ARE ANNOUNCED

Results of The Sixth District Contest Held Here April 5, Have Been Received

CONNERSVILLE TWO FIRSTS

Rushville School Finishes Second in
One Division—Total Grades and Standing

The winners in the Sixth District Latin contest, held in this city April 5, have just been announced, with Connerville pupils winning first places in the first and third divisions, Brookville taking first in the second division and Richmond finishing first in the fourth division.

Rushville finished second in the first division, sixth place in the second division and fourth place in the fourth division, with no entrant in the third division. Gings, however, finished ninth in this division.

The Latin contest for the district was in charge of Miss Helen Jaehne and the papers were sent to another district to be graded. The contest was conducted in the four divisions, each being for pupils in their relative class standing.

The summary of the grades and other standing of all pupils, is as follows:

- Division I
- 1—Inez Harvey, Connerville, 94.
 - 2—Alta Fowl, Rushville, 91 1/2.
 - 3—Chalmers Gilbert, Straughn, 89 1/2.
 - 4—Jane Keenar, Knightstown, 89 1-10.
 - 5—Elva Smith, Shelbyville, 88 4-5.
 - 6—Josephine Yarleng, Shelbyville, 87 1/2.

TO OBSERVE CARNATION DAY

War Mothers to Sell Carnations on Streets May 10

Carnation Day will be observed here on Saturday, May 10, it was announced today, by the Rush county chapter of War Mothers, who will sell carnations on the streets as a means of raising money for the disabled veterans of the World War.

It was announced by the War Mothers that Mayor Walter R. Thomas had given his consent for the selling of carnations.

It is customary to observe Carnation Day on the day before Mothers' Day, which falls on the second Sunday in May.

HOOSIER POET IS SPEAKER

William Marshall on nKights Tem-
plar Ladies Night

Rushville Commandary, Knights Templar, entertained with their annual Ladies Night Wednesday evening at the Masonic Temple, with a banquet and entertainment.

There were 157 present for the banquet, and this was followed by the entertainment, which was given by William Marshall of Indianapolis, noted poet and humorist, who also is a feature writer for the Indianapolis News. His part of the program was one of the best given in recent years at the annual affair. Mrs. C. E. Walden and Miss Helen Jaehne of this city, also provided vocal numbers during the evening.

TO CONSULT WITH THEIR GOVERNMENT

Allied Representatives on Reparations Commission Reach Decision
on Expert's Report

GERMAN NOTE IS DISCUSSED

(By United Press)

Paris, April 17—Representatives of the allied governments on the reparations commission decided today to send to their governments parts of the experts' commission report on reparations in which they are interested.

The commission met at 10:30 a. m. to discuss the German communication accepting the Dawes report in principle as a basis for settlement of the tangled reparations question. The German acceptance was delivered late Wednesday. It is a brief document accepting the Dawes report as a basis for solution of the long argued problem.

Owing to the brevity of the German note the Paris press today is unanimous in believing conditions may come later.

"Germany must be impressed early," LeMatin said. "Certain important laws must be passed and put into execution before the sincerity of her acceptance is convincing."

U. S. FLIERS WAIT FOR ARRIVAL OF LEADER

Leaking Crank Responsible For Major Martin's Plane Being Forced Down

BRITISH RESUME FLIGHT

(By United Press)

Cordova, Alaska, April 17—The United States army round the world flight was held up at Chignik today as the 3 planes which reached that fishing station Tuesday waited for arrival of Major Frederick Martin in the air cruiser Seattle.

Martin and his mechanic, Sergeant Harvey, were with their plane which was reported being towed to Tanaka after being forced to descend near Portage Bay.

Radiograms from the destroyer Hull which found the two airmen, said the Seattle would need repairing before it could proceed to Chignik. A leaking crank case was reported as the cause of the big plane's forced descent, which caused hours of anxiety before the air cruiser was located.

Athens, April 17—The British round the world flight was resumed today when the big amphibian plane commanded by Major Stuart MacLaren took off from the aerodrome at Old Phaleron for Cairo.

The airmen hoped to make the long trip in a single non-stop flight, one of the longest legs of the world-girdling effort.

ACCUSED MAN DIES

Kansas City, Mo., April 17—John M. Moore, deposed president of the Fidelity National Bank and Trust Company, Kansas City, accused of embezzling $600,000 of the banks funds died here today. He was stricken Friday after discovery of his alleged defalcation.

FOR EMPLOYMENT OF H. S. PUPILS

Eugene B. Butler, Principal, Announces That His Office Will Be Clearing House

PUPILS NAMES ON FILE

All Records And Qualifications of all
Who Are Willing to Accept Employment

Eugene B. Butler, principal of the high school, today announced that his office had been made a clearing house for the employment of students of the junior and senior high school, after school hours, and for the vacation period.

School records and qualifications of all pupils who will accept employment are on file and persons who can use them to advantage in spring cleaning or for permanent summer work, are advised to get in touch with Mr. Butler's office at the Graham high school building at once.

The announcement is addressed to "The employers of persons under eighteen years of age," and is as follows:

Through my office, as Principal of the Rushville High School, we are endeavoring to find suitable and available positions for our young people, for mornings and evening during the school day, for Saturdays and for the summer vacation period. Our object is to bring the right position and the right worker together through our recommendations.

No charges will be made for this service, as we believe it to be a part of the work of the public schools of this city. We have on file the school records and special qualifications of all students of the Junior and Senior High School who will accept employment, and whom you may legally employ. In this way we can give you a select number of applicants for the vacancies you may have from time to time.

We ask your cooperation in this work and hope that we may be of service to you. Will you call on us when you are in need of workers? Our phone number is 1023. No piece of work is too small to list with us.

Yours very truly,
EUGENE B. BUTLER
Principal of Rushville High School

BONUS AND TAX BILLS ARE BEING DELAYED

Senate Disputes Prevent Measures
From Coming Before Body For Any Action

READY FOR DEBATE FOR WEEK

Washington, April 17—The bonus bill and tax reduction today were stalled behind obstacles that threatened seriously to delay their final passage.

Senate disputes have prevented these measures from coming before the senate and unless that body decides to urge its usual Easter recess the adjusted compensation bill cannot be taken up before next week.

Both the bonus and the tax bill have been ready for discussion for nearly a week.

Senator Curtis, who will be in charge of the bonus bill on the floor, has made arrangements to get it up as soon as the immigration bill is disposed of, but other pending matters may further delay action.

END ONLY MATTER OF HOURS

Sen. Watson's Mother Lies in A
Dying Condition

Winchester, Ind., April 17—Senator and Mrs. James E. Watson are constant watchers at the bedside of Mrs. Mary E. Watson, mother of the senator, who lies in a dying condition at her little home here.

The sufferer, who recently celebrated her 91st birthday, is in a semi-conscious condition and physicians say the end is only a matter of hours.

IN HANDS OF A RECEIVER

Farmers Co-operative Elevator Co., at Arcadia is a Failure

Noblesville, Ind., April 17—The Farmers' Co-operative Elevator company at Arcadia, near here, was in the hands of a receiver today.

Petition for receivership was filed by A. B. Good, who alleged that the company was practically insolvent. The elevator has been under co-operative ownership for four years.

LEGION CONTEST WELL UNDER WAY

National Essay Contest. Started April First. And Reports Are Now Coming in

All Boys and Girls Are Eligible to Compete For National Prizes in Cash Awards

(By United Press)

Indianapolis, Ind., April 17—The American Legion National Essay Contest, having started April 1, is well on its way and reports coming in to national headquarters here show great interest among the school children of the United States. The contest will close June 15.

The subject assigned for this year's essay is: "Why Communism is a Menace to Americanism." All boys and girls from 12 to 18 are eligible. The essays will be limited to one from each person, the essays not to be over 500 words long. Spelling, penmanship and neatness will be considered, as will also the age of the contestant.

County Superintendents of Schools are asked to appoint a committee of three to judge the best essay for his county. The first prize in each State will be a silver medal, the second a bronze medal and the third a certificate of merit.

The winning essay in each county will be forwarded to the department of Americanism chairman of the American Legion not later than July 10. The awards will be announced a few weeks later by a national committee, still to be named.

The national prizes will be, first prize $750, second prize $500 and third prize $250.

The cash prizes will be used only towards scholarships in colleges designated by the winners.

Farm Bureau Head Refuses to Serve On G. O. P. Committee

Indianapolis, Ind., April 17—W. H. Settle, president of the Indiana Farm Bureau Federation, today declined the appointment as chairman of the sub-committee on agriculture of the Republican State committee.

In a letter to Clyde A. Wall, Republican state chairman, Settle said his connection with one political party might hamper the work of the federation.

"Our organization is non-political," he said, "and we desire to work with all parties in the interest of agricultural legislation."

Judge Ellis of Anderson Rules of Constitutionality of Statute

Anderson, Ind., April 17—In a ruling on the $25,000 damage suit of James A. Pearson against the Nicholson File Company, Judge Ellis upheld the state compensation law.

Attorneys for the company attacked the law as violating the state constitution because it fixed at 55 percent of the wages employee's wages the amount of compensation to be received.

WHEELER ON TRIAL AT OWN REQUEST

Montana Senator Wants to be Cleared of Charge Brought Against Him at Great Falls

WILL QUIT AS "PROSECUTOR"

Will Give up Duties as Head of Daugherty Investigating Committee to Attend Own Trial

By FRAZER EDWARDS (U. P. Staff Correspondent)

Washington, April 17—At his own request Senator Wheeler, Montana, went "on trial" today before a committee of his colleagues in the senate.

Wheeler wants the cloud of the indictment returned against him by a federal grand jury in Great Falls, Mont., removed so that he can continue the investigation of former Attorney General Daugherty without his own fitness as a senator being questioned.

Before the senate "trial" begins, Wheeler may be arrested and arraigned before a United States commissioner. He made all arrangements to furnish bond for his appearance in court.

For the time being Wheeler will give up his duties as prosecutor of the Daugherty investigation to attend his own "trial." The Daugherty investigation will continue, however, with Chairman Brookhart taking over the task of examining witnesses.

Gordon Campbell, Montana oil man, from whom Wheeler is accused of accepting a retainer to secure oil leases after becoming senator, probably will be the first witness today, Chairman Borah announced.

Blair Coan, who was subpoenaed as an agent of the department of justice, although W. J. Burns, director of the bureau of investigation denied his connection with the department will also be on hand. Wheeler charged that Coan was employed by George B. Lockwood, secretary of the Republican national committee to investigate his record in Montana.

Other witnesses are former Representative Tom Stout, of Montana, and James Baldwin, Wheeler's law partner, who arrived yesterday in response to subpoenas. Senator McNary, Oregon, will sit on the committee today in the place of Senator McLean, Connecticut, who resigned because of the press of other work.

TOURISTS REPORTED KILLED

Americans Slain in Albania, Unconfirmed Report Says

Athens, April 17—Two more American tourists have been killed near Tirania, Albania, according to an unconfirmed report received by the ministry of war here today.

The report does not give the names merely reporting an attack on the tourists by a band of 15 highwaymen and stating that two Americans were killed. Albanians are very anxious, the message adds, fearing grave consequences from this second attack.

Rome sources which ordinarily are well informed on Albanian affairs do not report any additional attacks on Americans and it may be the Greek advises are merely a confusion of the murders of the Americans DeLong and Coleman in the Tirania-Scoutaria highway two weeks ago last Sunday.

SHOT TWO AND TRIED SUICIDE

Thurman Smith Held at Kokomo For Attempted Murder

Kokomo, Ind., April 17—Thurman Smith, 36, is held in the county jail today on a charge of shooting with intent to kill following a triple shooting affray late yesterday.

Smith, according to police, shot Minnie Sapp and her daughter when the mother rejected his attentions and then turned the gun on himself.

Mrs. Sapp and her daughter are in the hospital with wounds which may prove serious. Smith was only slightly wounded.

ARE DRAWING GOOD CROWDS

Pre-Easter Services Continue at United Brethren Church

The pre-Easter services at the United Brethren church are drawing good crowds each night, and the topics have been most interesting, with the Rev. Mr. Glover, pastor of the Methodist church of Carthage, in charge of the nightly sermons. The meetings will continue each night this week, including Saturday night, beginning at 7:30 o'clock. The minister last night took for his subject "The Greatest Need of the church at the Present Time" taken from Acts 1, 8. The minister is a forceful speaker and his sermons have been well delivered all week. There was one accession to the church at the meeting last night.

IS NEWCOMER IN THE RACE

Elias W. Dulberger of Indianapolis to Speak Saturday Night

Elias W. Dulberger of Indianapolis, a newcomer in the race for the Republican nomination for governor, will speak at the court house assembly room Saturday evening at 7:30 o'clock, it was announced today. Dulberger, who is an attorney with offices in the Baldwin block, Delaware and Market streets, Indianapolis, is not known here and very few people knew that he was in the race until his cards appeared in public places a few days ago.

C. S. Batt of Terre Haute, a state senator and aspirant for the democratic nomination for governor, was scheduled to make an address in the court house assembly room this afternoon.

TO STOP STREAM POLLUTION

Indianapolis, April 17—Pollution of Indiana lakes by the discharge of untreated sewage into their waters will be prohibited by order of the state board of health after January 1, 1926. The board at its meeting yesterday declared the practices which are common in many parts of Indiana are a menace to public health.

ENGAGEMENTS CANCELLED

Fort Wayne, Ind., April 17—Clara Kimball Young's engagements for the next ten days have been cancelled, upon advice of Dr. B. P. Weaver. Miss Young was suddenly stricken with an attack of appendicitis during a performance here Tuesday evening.

STATE HIGHWAYS WORKED UP WELL

Gravel and Stone Roads Survived The Winter in Best Shape of Any Previous Season

Drainage Has Played Important Part on Highway System, Because of Good Shape Now

Indianapolis, Ind., April 17—Gravel and stone surfaces in the state highway system are in better condition now than at a similar time in any previous year, despite the fact we are only a few days out of an unusually severe winter for highways.

This statement was made today by John D. Williams, director of the state roads body, who with Commissioner Earl Crawford, is back from touring northern Indiana roads.

Mr. Williams attributes the wonderful condition to systematic maintenance which calls for regular dragging and scraping and frequent applications of metal. Drainage also plays an important part toward success, for if water is left to stand long on a road some weak spots are likely to develop, especially if that road is handling dense traffic which most state roads do.

Highway officials point out that right now most stone and gravel roads are in perfect condition and it is remarkable considering recent numerous thaws and freezes, rain and floods. However, it is possible these roads will cut some just as soon as all moisture leaves them and spring traffic becomes heavier. It is when roads are cheaper to pave than to maintain continually as gravel and stone, that the commission advocates hard-surfacing, although the ear owner is rapidly recognizing that individually it is decidedly cheaper for him to operate his car over a paved road.

With auto registrations nearing the 600,000 mark and the state popular with thousands of tourists because of its good roads and rare scenic beauty, Indiana state highways will receive their hardest test this year, officials believe.

KNIGHTSTOWN MAN HURT

Indianapolis, April 17—Leonard Sheehan, 23, of Knightstown, was probably fatally injured when his auto was struck by a city street car early today. He suffered a concussion of the brain.

Gary—When Gary police started a round-up of suspicious characters, 48 men voluntarily appeared at police headquarters for a night's lodging rather than run the risk of being arrested for vagrancy and having to serve out a fine.

MURDER PROBE TO END TODAY

Indictment For Slaying of Non-Union Miner at Boonville Expected

Boonville, Ind. April 17—The War-riek county grand jury investigating the murder of Wesley Rogers, non-union coal miner, was expected to complete its probe today.

More than 20 witnesses have been called. It is understood indictments will not be returned until later.

Tom Julian and Bert Stanton, arrested as suspects, are still in jail although formal charges have not been placed against them.

Bless the Lord, O my soul, and for-

Honesty in Taxes

Everybody pays taxes.

We may not own a bit of land or a house. We may not have a penny in the bank, or even a War Savings Stamp left over from the war.

But we pay taxes just as surely as if we owned town houses, country homes and broad acres of farm land, stocks and bonds, bank accounts, mills, factories or railroads.

We all have to eat or starve to death. If the owner of the property in which the grocer has his store has to pay higher taxes, the grocer has to pay higher rent and we have to pay the grocer higher prices for our food.

We all have to sleep if we want to live. If the person who owns the house where we live has to pay higher taxes, then we have to pay higher rent, of course.

If the railroads have to pay higher taxes, they have to charge higher rates to haul everything we consume, and naturally, the increase is tacked on to the paying end—that's where the ultimate consumer hooks on.

Out of every eight dollars of our national income, one dollar goes for taxes—federal, state and local.

This means that the boy whose expenses are eight dollars a week pays one dollar in taxes in the form of prices made higher by taxation.

The same ratio prevails, regardless of the cost of living, though you may not own a dollar's worth of taxable property.

When it comes to dealing with the question of taxes, we need to be more honest with ourselves.

We need to understand that we can not continue to load on overhead and not have our pocketbooks feel it.

Governments are like individuals.
The only way they can economize is to spend less money. As long as people clamor for legislation to cure this or that fancied evil, just so long will taxes continue to be high and in some cases oppressive.

We Must Be Fair

It is the same love of justice which impels right-thinking Americans to desire that the government be ruthlessly cleansed of every taint and trace of corruption which also prevents them from condemning men without a fair trial, from taking irresponsible rumor for truth and to measure the accused and the witness by the same standards of character and possible motive.

HAVE COLOR IN CHEEKS

Be Better Looking—Take
Olive Tablets

If your skin is yellow—complexion pallid—tongue coated—appetite poor—you have a bad taste in your mouth—a lazy, no-good feeling—you should take Olive Tablets.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—a substitute for calomel—were prepared by Dr. Edwards after 17 years of study.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil.
You will know them by their olive color.

To have a clear, pink skin, bright eyes, no pimples, a feeling of buoyancy like childhood days you must get at the cause.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act on the liver and bowels like calomel—yet have no dangerous after effects.

They start the bile and overcome constipation. Take one or two nightly and note the pleasing results. Millions of boxes are sold annually at 15c and 30c.

Hunt's Washington Letter

BY HARRY B. HUNT
NEA Service Staff Writer.

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Willbur
Marsh, for 10 years Republican national committeeman from Iowa and for many years treasurer of the G. O. P., owes his downfall from his place of power on the national committee to the lowly flivver.

Clyde Herring, who recently elbowed Marsh out of Iowa's place at the G. O. P. table, was a poor boy out in the prairies twenty-odd years ago when Hen Ford started making autos. He had a hunch farmers would buy automobiles.
Apparently few folks, "business men" at least, agreed. For he found no competition when he applied for the Ford agency for the state. He got it.

Herring proceeded to plant more flivvers per capita in Iowa than ever have been sold in any similarly agricultural state. Orders from Iowa helped Ford satisfy his bankers more than once in those early days, that the auto business had a future.

The result was that Herring became famous in Iowa along with the car he sold. He and it were the farmers' friends. The acquaintanceship and popularity developed by Herring as advance agent for the "Lizzies" were the big factors in landing him in the national committeeman's job.

PROPOS "The Republican National Committee, there is a growing belief that John T. Adams, present chairman, will not be retained to direct President Coolidge's campaign for re-election.

There have been evidences that Coolidge and Adams do not "team together" harmoniously. Adams has not evinced enthusiasm over Coolidge's course with respect to the Denby and Daugherty resignations, and in many other matters their mental processes and political plans have been widely divergent.

an emotion seeming to sweep the country, to acquiesce in the hasty lament that the whole government is rotten. But the hard thing, yet the duty, for honest and intelligent citizens is in all this business to keep things distinct which ought not to be mixed up; to hold clearly in mind the difference between worthy ends, or professions, and unprincipled and unfair means; to spare no man who has betrayed a public trust, yet not to rush off to join what may turn out to be only a hue and cry against officials unjustly assailed.

We all want to see justice done.
But it cannot be done simply by cherishing amiable and proper sentiments.
It requires straight and hard thinking.
The country is obviously coming to do a little of that and could put up with a great deal more.

The ups and downs of the prolonged investigation at Washington have left many people much confused.
It is hard for the ordinary man in the face of the conflicting evidence to keep his mind clear. And he is not helped by some of the public instructors who set out to enlighten him.
They tell him that he ought to be filled with consuming indignation against every man in official life whose name has been brought under suspicion. If he objects that the proof is not satisfactory, that discredited and unbelievable witnesses have been allowed to pour out their tales before the senatorial committee, then these moral guides turn upon him and say: "So you are willing to condone fraud. You approve of a government that is corrupt yet contented. You object to the uncovering of malfeasance and crime in our public life, because you fear it will hurt business. You have no word of condemnation for bribe-takers and corruptionists."

This sort of outcry, however well meant, does a great injustice to the American people.

It is probably bookkeeping that Disclosure that the Republican National Committee was "in on" the efforts to obtain the indictment of Senator Wheeler of Montana, whose investigation forced the Daugherty resignation, has not strengthened the committee chairman in the president's regard, it is hinted. This situation, in fact, may play a big part in bringing about a showdown.

SHOULD Adams be sidetracked as mahout for the G. O. P. elephant, the list of eligibles for his place would be headed by C. Bascom Slomp, now secretary to the president.

Slomp is Republican committeeman from Virginia. He is an old hand in the political game and he plays a more diplomatic hand than Adams. Since the old charges that he solicited money for postoffice appointments did not bar him from being named secretary, it is not believed Coolidge would regard them seriously as a bar to his becoming national chairman.

WHILE the men are still milling around wondering—who will win the Democratic nomination at New York, Democratic women are getting ready for the big time of their political lives at the convention.

Of the 1094 delegates at the New York gathering, more than 300 will be women. A similar number, or more, will be alternates. The feminine representation on the floor will be the greatest in history and the women are taking it seriously, determined that they will help
"make history."

SPECIAL arrangements for women delegates at the convention are already being planned.
Mrs. J. C. Cantrell of Georgetown, Ky., widow of former Congressman Cantrell, is in New York seeing that everything is made ready feminine delegates.

Homer Cole, the singing evangelist, who opened a meeting in Green-

Col Jim Worth, the widely known sparklers and spends much of his time on the streets, greeting old friends.

The city of Rushville still has the pest house on its hands; last night was the time set for receiving bids to sell it, and the lone bid was rejected. It cost the city over $600 in lumber and material. Dr. F. M.
Sparks offered a bid of $99 for it for the gun club, but the city turned it down.

Ward Hackleman will represent

Swollen veins are dangerous and often burst. Sufferers are advised to get a two-ounce, original bottle of Physicians recommend Emerald Oil; it is used in hospital practice and a small bottle will last a long time, evening at a meeting of tennis fans at the office of Russell B. Titsworth and the proposal to ask the city to put in asphalt courts in Memorial park was informally discussed.

Tennis players have been advocating the building of asphalt courts in the park for the past few weeks, on the theory that the city could have them installed at a very small cost by the company which is awarded the contract for the building of the asphalt boulevard through the new park addition.

Men interested in tennis have interviewed members of the council and the city park board and report that they find sentiment very favorable to the project.

It is stated that two double courts of asphalt could be built where the present courts are located, at a very small cost, while the contractors have all of their equipment near the park.

Such courts would be very substantial, it is pointed out, and would enable tennis fans to bring to Rushville some tennis champions for exhibition contests. An Indianapolis sporting goods house has already promised to bring some champion tennis players to Rushville if the asphalt courts are constructed.

With decent courts, it is asserted that Rushville tennis players could get matches and tournaments with many surrounding cities and bring tennis up to the position it deserves in the city.

Rushville will get one more chance to get a hold on the tennis cup which

HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Sports Editor)

New York, April 17—Another of California's fairest daughters, a dashing 18-year-old miss, stands ready now for elevation to the throne as the international queen of tennis.

Golden haired Helen Wills, the idol and the proud boast of all America, is the recognized champion of the United States, and if she wins the British championship at Wimbledon next June, she will be the legitimate champion of the world.

There is no official title-as the world's champion tennis player, but there can be no dispute for a claim to the title made by the winner of the British and the American championships.

Just beginning to reach the best part of her game, the California girl has an even chance to win the British title against the best competition in the world. If Mlle. Suzanne Lenglen, the reigning queen of the court, does not defend her title, "little Helen" is a cinch to win.

The temperamental French star announced recently that her heart has been up for competition during the past two years. The city winning it three years in succession gets to keep it. Connorsville had won the tournament twice and hopes to win the cup permanently this year.

If permanent courts were built, it is pointed out that the park board could make rules governing their use so that children as well as grownups could get the benefit. Hours could be arranged for young children and for boys and girls and a certain time each day could be set aside for the more advanced tennis players.

The tennis club continued its organization last night by electing Dr.
D. D. Dragoon president and Walter E.
Smith, secretary-treasurer. It was decided, $4.00 would be charged for membership, and that if 25 members could be obtained, enough money could be raised to put the dirt courts in condition until such time as the asphalt courts could be built.

was first in France, that she wanted to be on her best game for the glory of France in the Olympic games and that she could not defend her title at Wimbledon.

She may have other reasons for not wanting to try her game against Miss Wills at Wimbledon, but it is not courteous to question her motives or to doubt that her decision to stay away from the Wimbledon tournament was inspired by any reason other than the one given.

It is unfair to the California girl to say that she will win if Mlle. Lenglen does not play, because the inference would go along with it that she could not have won the championship if the real champion had been there to play her.

Miss Wills is going to England to play for the United States in the Wightman Cup matches, in the British championships and at the Olympic games. It is quite certain that he loves her country as deeply and as passionately as Mlle. Lenglen loves France. The American girl believes that she can get her best game by playing through the most strenuous preliminary competition in strange lands and under unfamiliar conditions. The French girl believes that she would hurt her game by playing through one tournament at Wimbledon on a court that ought to be as familiar to her as the path to the door of her home.

TIGHT PITCHING FEATURES GAMES

Good Form Being Shown May be Result of Good Conditioning or Curtailling use of New Balls

LOW SCORES PREVAILING

George Sisler, Star Manager of Browns, Brings Joy to Hearts of
Fans With His Performance

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

New York, April 17—Tight pitching, unusual for this time of the year has been a feature of the infant season in the major leagues.

The good form shown by the pitchers may be result of good conditioning in the south or may come from the new rule curtailing the use of new balls, or may come from both.

Low score games prevailed in the two opening days. Lefty Cooper, the Pittsburg veteran, let th Reds down with five hits yesterday. Jack Bentley, the Giant southpaw, gave the Robins four hits and held them hitless for six innings. Jack Quinn, the veteran Red Sox spit-baller, held the slugging Yanks to six hits, three of which were scattered over the first eight innings. Ed Rommel, the Athletic star, stopped the Senators with five hits and Whitehill, the Detroit rookie, made the mauling Cleveland Indians content with seven hits.

With the Boston Braves on top,
the National League standing presents a strange appearance today.
Pictures of the standing probably will be taken by Christy Matthewson, to be hung on the walls of the club house for balm late in the fall.
When the Brooklyn Robins were on top yesterday, Squire Ebbets told them—"you're out in front now, my lads, and stay there." But they had only one day of their glory.
With the Phils in last place, the older league has one familiar appearance at least.

The American League also is slightly upset with the Cleveland Indians in last place and the Detroit Tigers on top. The other clubs are all tied for second place. The Tigers probably will remain within striking distance of their present position but the Indians will no trail for long.

The Yanks in losing to the Red Sox yesterday started to hear out some of the predictions that were made about them. The Yankees have to lose some games but champion teams do not fall asleep so soundly that they allow two double steals to be perpetrated on them in one inning.

George Sisler, the star manager of the Browns, again caused joy to the thousands of fans who are pulling for his comeback when he hit a double and two singles, scored a run and accepted eight chances perfectly.

New York—Appeals to modify the six round rule for minors, to repeal the $10 per round rule of preliminary boxers and approval of a new rule to permit champions to submit a list of six referees to the commission for champion bouts were made by the National Sports Alliance to the boxing commission.

Easter Greetings

We extend to our many friends and to all of you our heartiest greetings of this glad time of year. Easter in general is a time when the whole universe dons its glad rags and is gay. We hope that you may feel as blithe

KEEPING ONE EYE ON THE SCOREBOARD

Yesterday's Hero: Casey Stengel.
The home run hero of the worlds series took hold of one in the tenth inning and rode it out of the park,
the Braves beating the Phils 4 to 3.
Max Carey, antique Pirate outfielder, singled in the ninth, went down on a sacrifice, stole third and went home on Praynor's single with the run that beat the Reds 1 to 0.

Whitehill, rookie pitcher who beat Cleveland out of second place in the American League last fall out-pitched Coveleskie in a pitchers battle and the Tigers beat the Indians 5 to 1. Heilman hit a homer with one on.

After cooping the first game, the Brooklyn Robins returned to nor-malecy and were beaten by the Giants 7 to 1. Fresh and Southworth hit homers.

Working hard on three pitchers,
the Cubs beat the Cards 13 to 4.
Alexander filled the bases in the ninth inning and got the side on a force out by Hornsby and a double play.

Flooper scored from second on a single by Eddie Collins in the tenth inning and the White Sox won from the Browns 3 to 2. Sisler got a double and two singles.

Five runs were piled up by the Yankees in the ninth inning but they got going too late and the Her Sox won 9 to 6.

The Athletics knocked Mozdridge out of the box in the first inning and beat the Senators 6 to 1.

The Advance Literary Club will be entertained by Mrs. Lillian Jones at her home 212 East Eighth street, Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, and a large attendance is desired.

Mahoney Council 36 will meet at the Red Men hall Friday evening and degree work will be held, in connection with important business matters. It is urged that all members attend the meeting.

Several guests were entertained at dinner Wednesday evening at the home of Rev. and Mrs. E. G. McKibben, 321 West Seventh street, when they entertained Dr. Jonngward, a missionary who has spent seven years in the field in India. The Rev. and Mrs. McKibben were also assisted in the entertaining by Miss Mary Logan, who also has spent several years as a missionary in India and is now home on a furlough.

In observance of the Week of Prayer, the Missionary Society of the Main Street Christian church will hold a series of prayer meetings Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The place of the meetings and the leaders will be as follows:

At the home of Mrs. Wihlar Stiers, with Miss Florene Gronier as leader; at the home of Mrs. Lon Sexton, with Mrs. Will Abercrombie as leader; at the home of Mrs. C. E. Waldon, with Mrs. Ellis Downey as leader.

The Ladies Missionary society of the First United Presbyterian church was entertained Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Harry Kramer, in North Harrison street. An interesting program was rendered, with the devotional being led by Mrs. B. L. Traine. Miss Mary Fisher had charge of the study on the book, "The Debt Eternal" Dr. Jonngward, who has spent seven years as a missionary at India, was present at the meeting, and gave an interesting talk on her work in that country.

The First Presbyterian Missionary society was entertained Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Myra Kinnear, at her home in North Harrison street, and an interesting program on Japan was rendered. The program was as follows: "Stewardship," By Mrs. Gibson Wilson; "Interesting Points about Japan," Mrs. Bert Simpson; "The Religion of the People" by Miss Minnie Beale; "Liberalism in Japan" by Mrs. J. L. Cowing; story, "A Masterful Woman Search," by Mrs. Harry Hall; "The Tea House Lost to Japan," by Miss Grace Spencer; "Some results of the Earthquake," Mrs. Mary Holmes; "An Unheard demonstration" Mrs. John Boyd; piano solos by Eloise Morris, Edward Wilson and Robert Kinnear.

The Musical numbers rendered at the county convention of Federated clubs held at Carthage Tuesday, were omitted from the report of the session. The opening number was a piano duet by the Misses Dorothy Sipe and Helen Gause of Carthage. Mrs. Carl Beher and Mrs. Derby Green of this city next sang the Federated Song, "America, the Beautiful," Mrs.

Says His Prescription Has Power f Influence Over Rheumatism

Mr. James H. Allen, of Rochester, N. Y., suffered for years with rheumatism. Many times this terrible disease left him helpless and unable to work.

He finally decided, after years of ceaseless study, that no one can be free from rheumatism until the accumulated impurities, commonly called uric acid deposits, were dissolved in the joints and muscles and expelled from the body.

With this idea in mind he consulted physicians, made experiments and finally compounded a prescription that quickly and completely banished every sign and symptom of rheumatism from his system.

He freely gave his discovery, which he called Allenhu to others who took it, with what might be called marvelous success. After years of urging he decided to let sufferers everywhere know about his discovery through the newspapers. He has therefore instructed druggists everywhere to dispense Allenhu with the understanding that if the first pint bottle does not show the way to complete recovery he will gladly return your money without comment. All druggists can supply you.

LED "DUAL LIFE"

Mrs. Anna Beswick, gray-haired matron, who, despite her years, finds herself the center of a melodramatic "dual life" adventure in Philadelphia. Held under bail of $5000, it is now alleged that this mother of 15 children lived part of her life as the wife of W. C. Martin, banker, and the other part as wife of Samuel Beswick, carpenter.

Miller of Carthage rendered, "My Heart at Thy Dear Voice" by Saint-Saens. A group of songs was given by Mrs. Beher, as follows: "One Fleeting Hour" and "I Heard You Go By". The closing number on the musical program was a group of songs rendered by Mrs. Dailey of the Friends' church at Carthage. Miss Dorothy Sparks of this city accompanied the Rushville singers in their selections.

WIFE FIGHTING THAW'S RELEASE

Evelyn Nesbit, Battling for Heritage of Her Boy, Takes Active Part in Trial

PROMPTS MANY QUESTIONS

Believes She May Unnerve Thaw and Sway the Jury to Oppose His release From Asylum

By FRANK GETTY
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

Philadelphia, April 17—The "re-imagined" of the Thaw sanity trial turned into an amazing anti-climax today when the slayer of Stanford White took the stand and left it without being questioned.

Thaw's counsel, announcing that Mrs. Mary Thaw, Harry's mother was ill, immediately rested their case.

Parties opposed to Thaw's release were caught unawares by the action of Judge Patterson in putting Thaw on the stand and then turning him over to the opposition.

After hurried consultation they announced "no questions" and court adjourned until afternoon.

A murmur of interest ran through the court room where the trial of Thaw's right to freedom among his fellow men is being held.

A portly grey haired figure strode forward.

Men and women—there was a majority of the latter in the room—sat forward in their seats or rose to catch a glimpse of Stanford White's slayer as he entered the little enclosure beside the judge's bench.

The spectators saw in the dignified figure in the chair little trace of the gay-hearted spendthrift Pittsburgh youth who set tongues of New York and Paris wagging with his extravagance a quarter of a century ago. It was a heavy featured man, past middle age with thoughtful and rigidly composed features who appeared today to establish in open court his claims to sanity.

Philadelphia, April 17—In the pathway of freedom being smoothed for Harry K. Thaw by one of the most impressive and complete array of alienists and doctors ever called today, arose the figure of his wife, for whom he killed Stanford White years ago, the crime that eventually led him to the asylum where he lives today.

The trial to determine Thaw's sanity and the right to freedom narrowed rapidly towards the inevitable, bitter duals of wits that probably holds the answer to its outcome.

Harry, pronounced sane by those called in his behalf was ready for the supreme test—his personal appearance on the stand. He had heard the worst said of him that cross examination of his witnesses could produce and was almost obviously eager to fire and answer the questions himself.

Evelyn Nesbit, fighting for the heritage of her boy—the boy she claims to be Harry's as well off-spring of days before their love died—was prepared to prompt, at her lawyer's elbow, other questions.

These questions arise from long passed incidents, things known only to Evelyn, things that happened when she was wife of the youth who now, a portly, pouchy man, is the center of all eyes in the stuffy court room.

Evelyn believes the questions she can prompt may unnerve Thaw and sway the jury to oppose his release from the asylum in which he has spent the past seven years.

Just as the millionaire is supremely confident of his ability to come through with flying colors, the stern of cross-examination he knows awaits him, so is Evelyn certain she holds a clue to certain kinks in her former husband's brain.

ASKS $258.50 ON CONTRACT

Jesse L. Nicholson Sues Ithamer McCarty for Damages

Jesse L. Nicholson is plaintiff in a suit filed against Ithamer McCarty, in the circuit court, in which the demand is for $258.50 judgment on a contract. The suit alleges that the plaintiff had a contract with the defendant for clearing a tract of land and planting it in corn, and that the defendant has failed to keep his part of the agreement. A few days ago, a suit was filed by Mr. McCarty against Nicholson to eject him from a tenant house on his farm.

In the case of William A. Hughes against Richard R. Harter, a complaint for services rendered, the plaintiff has filed a motion for a change of venue from the county. The case is of long standing, and was filed in court on December 24, 1921. The demand is for $3,000 judgment.

BANDITRY WIPED OUT IN OKLAHOMA

25-Year Sentences in Leavenworth Were Passed Out to Six Survivors of Bandit Gang

PEACE OFFICER COMMENTS

Wm. Tilghman, With 40 Years Experience, Witnessed Passing of Four Noted Bandit Gangs

By S. A. BARKER
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)
Oklahoma City, Okla., April 17—Organized banditry has passed from Oklahoma.

Such was the comment of William (Bill) Tilghman, veteran peace officer and bandit-hunter, after 25-year sentences in Leavenworth federal prison were passed out to six survivors of the Al Spencer bandit gang a few days ago.

Tilghman spoke with finality, based upon more than 40 years' experience, in which he has witnessed the passing of four noted bandit gangs.

Bob Dalton, leader of the Dalton gang, met death at the hands of the law at Coffeyville, Kan., in 1882, when the band of desperadoes were partially wiped out and the remainder imprisoned.

Bill Dooan, "king of Oklahoma outlaws", was killed near Lawton in the old Indian Territory in 1896, after his band had been captured.

Henry Starr, who robbed more banks than any other outlaw in Oklahoma history, was slain while looting a bank in Arkansas in 1922. His associates separated and formed anew, according to officers, under the leadership of Al Spencer with headquarters in the Osage hills of northern Oklahoma.

A charge of cattle rustling and a penitentiary sentence featured Spencer's first run-in with the law in 1919. As a "trustee", he walked out of the Oklahoma penitentiary at McAlester a few months later and started his picturesque career.

Bank robberies in Oklahoma, Kansas and Arkansas were credited to the "Spencer gang," while officers sought vainly for the "phantom leader." While officers sought him, Spencer was seen in a hotel lobby here. When officers arrived a few minutes later, he was gone.

A few days later he was seen in Wichita, Kan., but slipped back into northern Oklahoma, well ahead of pursuit.

Born near Nowata, Spencer knew the Osage country trails and hiding places, which were a mystery to outsiders.

On the night of August 21 last, a M. K. & T. passenger train was halted in the desolate country near Okesa, Okla., and looted of more than $20,000 in Liberty bonds and currency, in genuine "wild west" fashion. While more than half a dozen bandits held passengers within the train and battered their way into the mail coaches, the gang leader, later established as Spencer, chatted unconcernedly with captive members of the crew upon current questions.

Posses under direction of Alva McDonald, United States deputy marshal, closed in upon the Osage country and herded more than a score of suspects into the Pawhuska jail a few weeks later.

But Spencer's uncanny luck, which carried him safely through the encircling cordon, deserted him near the little town of Caney, Kan., where he walked into an ambuscade of a federal posse and fell riddled with bullets without returning the fire. Several thousand dollars in bonds, stolen from the "Katy" train at Okesa, were found upon his body.

Curtis Kelly, Spencer's right-hand man and confidant, confessed complicity in the Okesa robbery and gave testimony that sent five companions with him to Leavenworth.

THIS Studebaker Light-Six is the supreme value in the "thousand-dollar" class.

It offers, not a few, but scores of advantages. In its chassis it represents the best that modern engineering knows. In its steels and quality of construction it is identical with the costliest cars we build.

This is to offer you proofs. Then urge that you see it before paying $1,000 or more for a car.

Some evidence

The extra values which this car typifies have made Studebaker the largest builder of quality cars.

They have made these cars a sensation. Sales have almost trebled in three years. Last year 145,167 people paid $201,000,000 for Studebaker cars.

The multiplying demand has forced an investment of $50,000,000 in model plants and equipment. Of this, $38,000,000 has been spent in the past five years, so the plants are up-to-date.

The engineering department which designs and superintends this Light-Six costs $500,000 per year.

The machines which build it are modern and exact. 517 operations on this car are exact to 1/1000th of an inch. 122 operations are exact to one-half 1/1000th of an inch.

1,200 inspectors are employed to submit each car in the making to 32,000 inspections.

Infinite care

The steels are selected from 35 formulas, each one proved best by years of test for its purpose. On some we pay the makers 15% premium to get them exactly right.

The crankshafts are machined on all surfaces, as was done in the Liberty Airplane Motors. This to give perfect motor balance, at an extra cost to us of $600,000 yearly.

It has more Timken bearings than any other competitive car within $1,500 of its price.

cars in this class called in auditors to compare the operating costs. They made comparisons on 329 cars, running up to 25,000 miles.

It was found that this Studebaker Light-Six cost for operation 11.4% less than the average of its rivals. This figure included depreciation. That meant $207.50 saved on 25,000 miles. All because of this quality construction.

What it saves you

We build 150,000 cars yearly. All such major costs as engineering, dies, overhead, etc., are divided by 150,000.

We build in model plants, with modern machinery, which have immensely reduced the manufacturing costs.

A car like this, built under ordinary conditions, would cost you from $200 to $400 more.

Learn, for your own sake, what that means to you.

Mail us the coupon below. We will send you free our new book that will inform you on five simple things which reveal the value of a car. For instance: It will enable you to look at any car and tell whether it's been cheapened to meet a price or offers true quality.

It will tell you why some cars rattle at 20,000 miles and others don't. It shows one single point in a closed car which measures whether you're getting top or medium quality. The book is free—clip the coupon below.

Scores of extra values

Built by the leader in the fine-car class. One of the cars for which people last year paid $201,000,000.

Built in a model $50,000,000 plant, producing 150,000 cars yearly. And saving you by quantity production from $200 to $400.

Built of the same steels, with the same care, as the costliest cars we make.

The car that saved 11.4% in operating cost under rivals. The car with 14 Timken bearings.

DIRECT COOLIDGE CAMPAIGN IN INDIANA

The Coolidge forces have been completed with the appointment of a man and a woman manager in each county, and men and women managers in each district. Representatives are also being selected for every precinct. Mr. Emison's plan is for a strong organization ready for any intensive work that may be necessary for the purpose of translating, via the ballot box, the Coolidge sentiment into thirty-three instructed delegates to the Republican national convention. Thus far Mr. Emison has been conducting a modest campaign, finding, he says, a strong, crystallized sentiment favorable to the President exists in Indiana.

As Others See Us

IN ITS issue of March 5, the Gazette, of Hutchinson, Kansas, says:

"THE BRIGHT SIDE"

The Standard Oil Company gets into print often but never on account of trouble with its employees. Arthur Brisbane says the company is the best managed business organization in the world.

The entire oil business has been singularly free from labor troubles which have beset many of the other major industries. Reasons for this can be found in the fact of the rapid growth of the industry, the payment of relatively high wages and the shifting of producing and refining centers.

The oil companies, however, have not been content to allow harmony to rest entirely with conditions. Efforts have been made, in the Standard and other companies, to obtain the greatest harmony possible among the workers. The Standard of Indiana was a pioneer in fostering a policy granting employees, through their elected representatives, a voice in settlement of all questions affecting their welfare, as to wages, hours of labor and working conditions.

How the plan is working is expressed by Colonel Robert W. Stewart, chairman of the board of directors, who says:

"The greatest thing needed in American industry today is a better understanding between employees and management. The day of intolerant and drastic methods by either the leaders of capital or labor is past. Each needs the other, and the policy of establishing good-will, peace and understanding have been established between the management and employees of our company.

"For five years we have worked together in mutual esteem and trust. For the board of directors, I say to you that while the problems presented by the situation in the oil industry today are stupendous, we face them with a greater confidence because we feel that we have back of us the whole-hearted support of every man and woman in the Standard Oil Company (Indiana)."

The oil business has its virtues as well as its foibles, if conducted properly."

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) has been relatively free from labor troubles because justice, equity and fairness are fundamental to the organization.

Without loyalty, earnestness and complete harmony in its organization of 27,000 men and women, this Company would be unable to render to the thirty million people of the Middle West, the comprehensive service which they now enjoy and which is so essential to their commercial and domestic life.

ABSENCE OF FISH LADDERS IS NOTED

Indiana Laws Provide For Their Installation. According to George N. Mannfield

Not Unlawful to Snare Suckers. It is Pointed Out—Convictions in February

Indianapolis, Ind., April 17—On account of the interest fishermen now take in the protection and propagation of fish, the absence of fish ladders over many dams in this state is noticeable. George N. Mannfield, superintendent of the fish and game division of the state conservation department, in a bulletin issued to fish and game protective clubs.

According to aMannfield, Indiana laws provide for their installation, but it has been learned that they are of no use in leading game fish from the waters below a dam to those above. This is the experience in both this and foreign countries. Our law was passed at a time when it was taken for granted that a fish ladder was useful for equating life to go on stream over a dam.

Mannfield says an eastern state several years ago constructed a fish ladder at a cost of $60,000 but no fish ever went over it. In his opinion it is not only costly but useless to construct fish ladders for the following reasons:

Ice damages and often destroy them; spring floods render them useless, either tearing them away or filling them with debris; they are rendered ineffective by too much water at some seasons; at others by none going through; the fish do not find the entrance, the same being placed wrong or too small; if the ladder is covered and dark, game fish will not enter; fish prefer to leap a dam and do it if it is not too high, or go around it at flood times.

"We are frequently asked whether it is unlawful to snare suckers. Under the Indiana fish laws it is not unlawful, nor it is unlawful to use a grappling hook, or to take suckers with the hands. This applies also to taking carp, dog fish and gar fish. A person also can use as many rods or throw lines as he likes, provided he actually fishes with them and does not fasten them. When fastened they become set lines. A person may only use one set line, or one trot line. On such line no more than 50 hooks can be placed, nor must the hooks be smaller than one-half inch from point to shank. Hooks of any size may be used on a throw line."

Mannfield's bulletin said that game wardens brought about 40 convictions for violation of fish and game laws in February. The division closed its books April 1 for applications for fish, and orders received from now on will be placed on the list to receive stock fish in 1925, unless the amount of fish reared this year is sufficient to fill them.

MY DAUGHTER WOULD CRY AT EVERYTHING

Nervous and Irritable. By Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Became Entirely Normal

Clinton, Wisconsin.—"My daughter was in a very run-down condition, and was irritable, and would cry at every little thing she was so weak and nervous. As Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had helped me when I was a girl I gave it to her to build her up, and the results were all that we could wish for. I wish that every mother with growing girls would try it for these troubles girls often have. I had taken it myself before my girl was born, and she was one of the nicest babies any one could wish to have. I recommend the Vegetable Compound to women and girls and cannot praise it too highly." — Mrs. L. A. HOLFORD, Box 48, Clinton, Wisconsin.

Mothers can depend upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to relieve their daughters of those troubles they so often have. They know from experience the value of the Vegetable Compound in the treatment of these complaints and many, like Mrs. Holford, give it to their daughters.

IMPROVEMENT RESOLUTION NO. 380

A Resolution For The Improvement of The Park Boulevard in Memorial Park in The City of Rushville, Indiana

Be it resolved by the Common Council of the City of Rushville, Indiana, that it is deemed necessary to improve Park Boulevard in Memorial Park in the city of Rushville, Indiana, commencing at a stone at the intersection of Jackson and Eleventh streets in Rushville, Indiana, and extending North 97 1/2 feet; thence north 35 degrees 40' east, 171.5 feet; thence north 33 degrees 35' East, 246.75 feet; thence North 33 degrees 38' East, 270.5 feet; thence North 29 degrees 28' East, 155.5 feet; thence North 14 degrees 53' East, 320.8 feet; thence North 16 degrees 17' East, 460.6 feet; thence North 16 degrees 17' East 151.5 feet; thence North 60 degrees 4' East, 570 feet, to the center of the Rushville and Dunreith Turnpike, said line as above described being parallel to and about 45 feet East and South of Dodge's Branch.

Also commencing at the intersection of Twelfth Street and the above named line and extending to the Northwest a distance of about 100 feet, by grading and paving the roadway of said Park Boulevard with crushed stone with oil penetration, asphaltic concrete or crushed stone base, vitrified brick on crushed stone base or wood block on crushed stone base.

That the said Boulevard be paved twenty (20) feet wide throughout its entire length with five (5) feet of earth lawn on either side with a side gutter along the entire east side of said Park Boulevard and that there shall also be constructed six concrete catch basins with vitrified pipe or galvanized pipe leading from them to Dodge's Branch together with an outlet head wall for each, and that there shall also be constructed as a part of said improvement a fourteen (14) foot reinforced concrete bridge over Dodge's Branch, all in accordance with the plans, profiles, details and specifications on file in the Clerk's office of said City of Rushville, Indiana, and such improvement is now ordered.

The cost of said improvement shall be paid from the funds now in the hands of the City Treasurer, being funds received from a bond issue made for the purpose of purchasing said Memorial Park and making improvements therein. All proceedings had and work done in making of said improvement and payment therefor shall be as provided for in act of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana, entitled "An Act Concerning Municipal Corporations," approved March, 6, 1905, and all act amendatory and supplementary thereto.

And said Common Council now fixes the 6TH DAY OF MAY, 1924, at seven thirty P. M. as the date upon which remonstrances may be filed by persons interested in or affected by said described public improvement, and notice shall be given that said Common Council will meet in the Council Chamber of said City at said time for the purpose of hearing and considering any remonstrances which may have been filed or which may be presented to be heard in connection with the construction of said improvement and will at said time decide whether the benefits from the making of such improvement will equal the estimated costs thereof as estimated by the City Civil Engineer.

COOLIDGE HOME IN NORTHAMPTON

The Home of President Coolidge

The left half of this modest double in Northampton, Mass., has been the home of President Coolidge for many years. When he was governor of Massachusetts he and Mrs. Coolidge lived in an unpretentious suite in a small Boston hotel.

FARM HOME OF THE COOLIDGES

Coolidge Homestead, Plymouth, Vt.

This is where Calvin Coolidge took the "midnight oath." It has become another American shrine. Already many thousands have visited the Coolidge homestead, and others will go there for generations to come.

WHERE COOLIDGE TOOK OATH AS PRESIDENT

PRESIDENT IS STUDYING COUNTRY'S BIG PROBLEMS

President Coolidge is making an organized study of the nation's chief problems and is calling the best informed men on each subject to the White House to discuss these matters in detail and obtain recommendations for the best means of proceeding to remedy conditions on a basis that will give the largest satisfaction and fullest relief. He is gathering information about agriculture, the railroads, markets for farm produce, industry, and working conditions.

This new light on the President's activity is gleaned from an article by French Strother, in the World's Work for April. Mr. Strother recently spent a week at the White House for the purpose of gathering material for this article. He came into intimate contact with the president in his study, at dinner, and in other phases of his home life.

"The president says little and listens much," Mr. Strother writes. "The day's work ends at—when it ends. If he is fortunate it may be at 4:30 o'clock, when he can go for a walk or a horseback ride. If less fortunate it may not end until 6 o'clock with barely time left to prepare for dinner. In another sense it practically never ends. His outstanding characteristic is hard, purposeful, continuous thinking. From this he rarely rests."

PROSPERITY REFLECTED IN EMPLOYMENT REPORTS

WASHINGTON, D. C.—(Special)—Business conditions, the markets, and employment of labor are all in a healthy state over the country generally—a condition which is particularly pleasing to the supporters of President Coolidge and leaders of his party, as the nation's prosperity reflects great credit on Mr. Coolidge as a stabilizer and steady-going, constructive manager of public affairs.

It is of special interest to notice from the latest reports of the department of labor that employment in manufacturing industries increased 1.2 percent in February—this being the first general increase since last summer. This figure is based on reports from 8,222 establishments in 52 industries, covering 2,693,636 employees whose total earnings during one week in February were over seventy-two million dollars. Increases in employment are shown in 36 of the 52 industries and increases in earnings are reported in 45 industries. The fact that in 4,689 establishments in 43 industries there was an 8.6 percent increase in per capita earnings is taken as a demonstration that the individual wage earner is benefiting by increasing income as well as steady employment.

VILLAGE SMITHY CALLS ON COOLIDGE AT WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON, D. C.—(Special)—A village blacksmith, Philip Gleason, of Northampton, Mass., was a proud visitor at the White House recently. He is a close personal friend of President Coolidge, whom he has known for many years, and he dined and swapped yarns of the old days with his distinguished host. Mr. Gleason was one of the original "Coolidge for President" men. According to Mr. Gleason the visit was the best time he ever had in all his sixty-eight years. He had the President's attention while diplomats and statesmen cooled their heels outside.

PRESIDENT COOLIDGE TO WORK ALL SUMMER

WASHINGTON, D. C.—(Special)—President Coolidge will remain on the job at the White House all summer. He has decided that business can be transacted more satisfactorily in Washington than anywhere else and has declined all offers of the use of handsome summer homes, which have been made to him by many persons. The President has been in the habit of going to his father's farm in Vermont to spend his vacations in the fields and at odd jobs, and he will not feel any discomfort in his regular work at the executive offices.

COOLIDGE ACTS HAVE SUPPORT OF PUBLIC

Recent Events Show President Enjoys Esteem of Populace—Editors Commendatory

Writing in the Nation's Business John Callan O'Laughlin introduces his subject in the March issue with this declaration:

"President Coolidge is profoundly determined, so far as in him lies, to promote the common welfare of the people of the United States. To achieve it he will not compromise with principle."

That this is the fixed impression of the public is brought to notice by events of the last few weeks. The strong showing of the president in the South Dakota primary (territory many thought would be lukewarm for a New Englander), and the general commendation of his new cabinet appointments are outstanding matters which serve to focus attention on the public estimate of the president and the extent to which he enjoys the confidence and good will of the populace.

The Rock of Salvation

The Indianapolis Star, among other Hoosier dailies, found in the vote for Coolidge in South Dakota nothing to give hope to the opposition and the Indianapolis News says the outcome should be encouraging to the supporters of Mr. Coolidge.

"As far as Mr. Coolidge is concerned," observes the News, "the people feel that he fell heir to considerable of a mess, which he is doing his best to clean up, and they see in him an honest and high minded man. Republicans would not find it easy to explain a turning away from him, unless indeed a reason should develop which is not now visible—even in the offing."

From the Springfield, Mass., Republican (Independent) we read: "Since this crisis in the affairs of the government (referring to the Washington situation) had to come, Republicans throughout the country can not be reminded too insistently that the unsullied character of Calvin Coolidge is the rock of their salvation."

Talents Already Manifest

The Attica Ledger-Tribune, under the caption "KEEP COOLIDGE" says: "If there ever was a time when America needed a strong guiding hand in the pilot house of the ship of state, backed by a brain that is neither easy to influence nor too set to be convinced, that time is the present," and the Cannelton Enquirer sounds the sentiment of the southern part of the state when it says that "Coolidge has made good" and that he should be free of the interference of those who seek to hamper him for the effect of political gains. "His talents, already made manifest in his capable administrative acts, should have adequate opportunity for complete re-dedication to the service of his fellow citizens."

REPUBLICANS WANT PLACE IN THE SUN AT CLEVELAND

INDIANAPOLIS, (Special)—Notwithstanding the fact that President Coolidge already has over 400 delegates pledged to him and promises of enough more in the April conventions to assure his nomination, the prospects are for an exceptionally heavy vote for Coolidge in the Indiana primary on May 6.

Two reasons are being cited for this. First, the President has a large following in Indiana which will cast an "endorsement vote" as a means of registering approval of his administration, and second, the Hoosier Republicans favoring Coolidge naturally wish their delegation to have a place in the sun at Cleveland and they propose to roll up a vote for the President in the primary that will be impressive enough to gain full recognition for their state after the nomination is over. These Republicans point out that if they do not make the kind of showing for Coolidge in the primary that the party sentiment really warrants, Indiana might be at a disadvantage in party circles after the election.

There has been no deviation from the modest campaign which Ewing R. Emison, the Indiana Manager, embarked upon at the outset. "This kind of a bid for support is thoroughly in harmony with the President's wishes. When he became a candidate for lieutenant-governor of Massachusetts, it is related, he simply wrote on a slip of paper "I am a candidate for lieutenant-governor." He promptly closed up the headquarters that was opened in Washington in the interest of his presidential nomination, being unwilling to sanction any activity in his behalf in the capital city.

FOR THE BOYS

"There are two things necessary for boys—they should work hard and have themselves." That is what President Coolidge told a group of boys when he interrupted his work the other day to greet them. They had called to interest him in the country-wide celebration of Boy's Week, April 27 to May 3.

The New ESSEX

A Six—built by Hudson under Hudson Patents
2500 New Buyers EVERY WEEK

All closed car selling records in this price field are broken by the Coach sales. Twenty-five hundred new Essex owners each week throughout the country tell the success of value.

Thousands daily are learning of qualities and advantages never expected in a car at such low cost. Priced $170 lower, the New Essex Coach provides a larger, handsomer body with even greater passenger comfort than the former Coach.

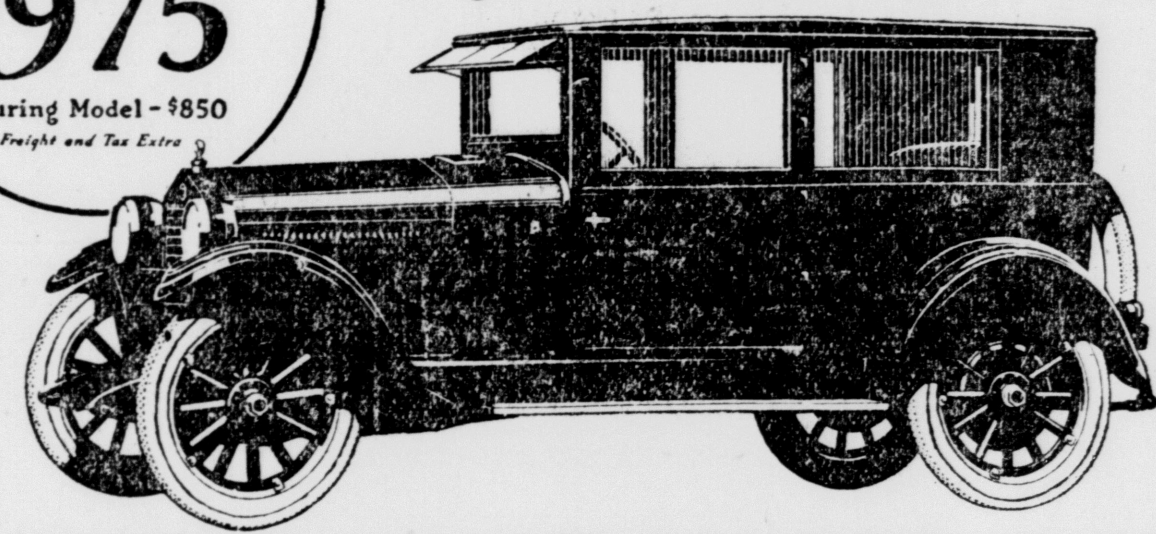

And its 6-cylinder motor, built by Hudson, gives the smoothness of performance for which the Super-Six is famous.

Take a 30 minute ride to learn the facts. You too will agree the New Essex is "the car for everyone."

Mothers, Do This—

When the Children Cough, Rub
Musterole on Throats and Chests

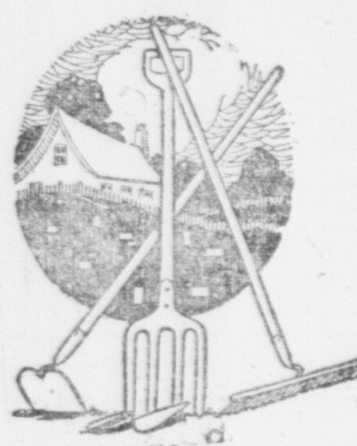

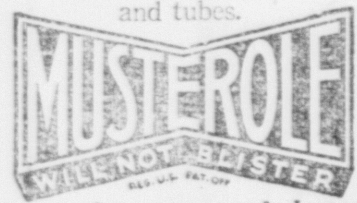

No telling how soon the symptoms may develop into croup, or worse. And then's when you're glad you have a jar of Musterole at hand to give prompt relief. It does not blister.

As first aid, Musterole is excellent. Thousands of mothers know it. You should keep a jar ready for instant use.

It is the remedy for adults, too. Relieves sore throat, bronchitis, tonsillitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, headache, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, chilblains, frosted feet and colds of the chest (it may prevent pneumonia).

To Mothers: Musterole is now made in milder form for babies and small children. Ask for Children's Musterole.

Investigating the Investigator

These four men will decide whether or not Senator Burton K. Wheeler, spectacular head of the Daugherty investigation, is the victim of a "frame-up" intended to quiet his activities. It is charged that Wheeler accepted fees while in office and the investigator insists it is a plot to embarrass him. Left to right the committeemen are: Senators Caraway, Swanson, Sterling and Borah (chairman).

MOVIES

Seats on Sale For Picture

The seat sale for "The Covered Wagon," a big motion picture production, to be seen at the Princess Saturday, is now ready for the public. The big picture will be here one day only, with a matinee performance and the night show at 8:15. A special orchestra of 15 musicians follow the picture from the start, which adds much to it.

The undaunted spirit of Americans who left comfortable homes in the East and answered the call of "Westward Ho!" in the early forties is recorded in a masterly fashion in it. The picture is based on the book of the same name by Emerson Hough.

There is a fascination about the long line of white topped wagons creeping ever westward which those who see the photoplay will not forget. It had the ring of truth and was in the spring.

A daring, rivaling that of the pioneer, was displayed by the actors in the scene where the wagon train fords La Platte River. Horses and oxen swim for a long distance, still drawing the wagons.

Although, "The Covered Wagon" is for the most part spectacular the love interest is not absent. It is contained in a trite story entirely unworthy of the picture serving only to give Tully Marshall and Ernest Torrence several opportunities for excellent characterizations.

Hoosier Picture at Castle

If you want to see a picture with real thrills, adventure, humor, atmosphere and a corking love-story, drop in at the Castle theatre today where they're playing "The Hoosier Schoolmaster." It's the screen version of Edward Eggleston's widely-read novel and it's a faithful depiction of the Hoosier country during the period before the Civil War.

Then, Indiana was harassed by bandits. No one knew who the guilty were but every one looked at his neighbor with suspicion. The Flat Creek District was not better than the rest of the country and perhaps a little bit worse.

To this section comes Ralph Hartsook the new schoolmaster. He is warned that his pupils will probably throw him out but he's willing to take the chance and stay. He rounds up the gang of bandits who are worrying the district—although the mob almost lynches him before he succeeds in doing it and falls in love with Hannah Thompson, the orphan girl, who according to the custom of the time has been "bound out" as a servant.

You'll laugh a great deal over "The Hoosier Schoolmaster," and you'll like it. It's one of the best character comedies we've seen recently.

Refusal to Kiss Her is Given as Divorce Grounds

Indianapolis, Ind., April 17—Refusal to kiss her goodbye is given as one of the grounds for a divorce in a suit filed by Mrs. Kathryn C. Criswell.

Robbins C. Criswell began to treat her like a servant shortly after their marriage Aug. 25, 1923, she charges. When she complained of such treatment, she says, Criswell told her: "You ought to be proud to be my housekeeper, just see the social position it gives you."

Streets Are Not Public Garages, Gary Mayor Says

Gary, Ind., April 17—No longer may the streets of Gary be used as public garages for indigent auto owners.

Mayor R. O. Johnson has issued an edict that hereafter owners of cars who negligently leave their conveyances on the public right-of-way may wake up in the morning to find that they have left without trace.

All that will be necessary to locate the missing driver will be a canvass of the various garages, where storage charges must be paid before the car will be released.

Child-birth

WHEN the Little One arrives, you can have that moment more free from suffering than you have perhaps imagined. An eminent physician, expert in this science, has shown the way. "It was he who first produced the great remedy, "Mother's Friend," Mrs. C. J. Hoffman, Secretary, F. A. S. S.

"With my first child I had a doctor and a nurse and then they had to use instruments, but with my last two children I used 'Mother's Friend' and had only a nurse; we had no time to get a doctor because I wasn't very sick—only about ten or fifteen minutes. 'Mother's Friend' is sold by all drug stores—everywhere."

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS

Notice is hereby given by the undersigned that the Board of Commissioners of Rush County, Indiana, at the office of the Auditor in Rushville, Indiana, will receive sealed proposals for macadam road as set out in the plans and specifications, profiles and requisitions now on file in the office of the Auditor.

Said sealed proposals will be opened and the contract awarded for said improvement on the 10th day of May, 1924.

Bids or proposals will be received up to 2 o'clock p. m. on said date.

The said improvement is located in Rushville Township, Rush County, Indiana, and more particularly known as the James Shannahan et al Road.

The estimated cost of said improvement is $27,761.00.

Bids will be for the completion of the said improvement in accordance with the plans, profile and specifications in the office of Auditor and shall include all labor and material for said work. In no case will extra compensation be allowed for any additional work alleged to have been done by the contractor or contractors to whom is awarded the contract.

Each bid shall be accompanied by a personal or surety bond in a sum equal to double the amount of the bid filed for the work bid on, to be approved by Board of Commissioners. Said bond shall be conditioned for the faithful performance of the work; the sureties, if personal, shall be resident freeholders of the State of Indiana, one of whom shall be a resident of Rush county.

Said bond shall be for the benefit of any person, persons or corporation who shall suffer any loss or damage by reason of any such bidder failing or neglecting to enter into a contract to perform such work awarded on the bid or to carry out the same in any particular or to pay for any labor or material which may have been furnished to any such contractor or contractors or to any sub-contractor, agent or superintendent under him, in the construction of said work.

Said contract will be let as a whole to the lowest responsible bidder upon affidavit of noncollusion, which must be submitted with the bid, and upon failure to submit such affidavit such proposal or bid will be rejected and the board reserves the right to reject any and all bids. Time for the completion of said work will be agreed upon after the letting of said contract by the Commissioners and successful bidder.

Constipation Is

Chiropractic Health Talk No. 61

By H. V. McCully, D. C., Ph. C.

I believe constipation is one of the most frequent abnormal conditions found among human ills.

I also believe that a vast majority of the more serious conditions are the result of that continual bowel inactivity.

Constipation divides itself into two classes—true constipation and costiveness.

True constipation is a condition where the muscular walls of the intestines are relaxed, or one might say partially paralyzed and cannot force the contents of the bowel onward. Costiveness is brought on by lack of secretions that should be emptied into the intestinal tract from the liver, spleen, pancreas intestinal walls, etc., causing the contents of the bowel to be dry and without proper lubrication.

In either form our adjustments correct the cause and bring back a state of normality.

Rushville Man Furnishes Proof

"I had been a constant sufferer for several years with constipation. I have tried various drugs but found the results from them only temporary. Finally through continued use of purgatives, my stomach began to bother me. I developed a tired, worn-out feeling and had spells of dizziness.

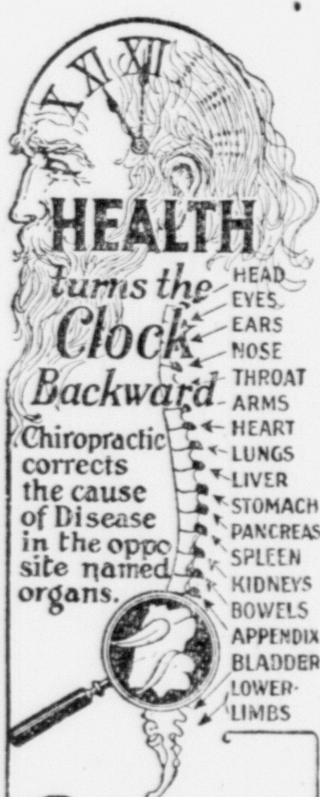

I am only too glad to say that after a series of Chiropractic Adjustments from Dr. McCully, I am relieved of my former trouble. Nothing but straight Chiropractic Adjustments were used."

ASKS U. S. HELP IN FIGHT ON FIRES

Forester's Program Includes Research Campaign as to Means of Controlling Forest Fire

VAST ANNUAL LOSS REPORTED

Government Weather Bureaus Will Be Asked to Aid in Supplying Special Reports

Madison, Wis., April 17—A program for intensive research as to means of controlling forest fires has been announced by a committee of Federal administrative and research foresters, meeting in connection with the Forest Products Laboratory here.

The committee report stresses paramount importance of co-operation of weather forecasters in determining "fire weather conditions," and aiding in control of fires by designating areas to which the fire is most likely to spread.

Methods have been devised, according to the committee, or accurately designating areas where greatest care must be taken to prevent fires. The report also recommends study of lightning storms, held responsible for a large majority of fires.

Over $17,000 worth of timber is destroyed by fires annually, it is estimated.

Principal points in the foresters' program follow:

1. A special effort should be made to put to practical use all available statistics on fires, placing emphasis on nature, extent and appraisal of fire damages.

2. Weather bureaus in Washington, D. C., Chicago, Denver and San Francisco will be requested to furnish a special weather report to forest officials in the regions covered by each bureau. This data will be studied to determine areas in which fires are likely to occur.

3. An appropriation will be requested for assigning meteorologists to the forest service and weather bureau to assist in fire hazard studies. It is recommended that observation of lightning storms be undertaken in Western districts.

4. Investigations are recommended to determine inflammability of forest growths, with study of actual fires with reference to such points, as rate of spread, general behavior and control.

5. Supervision of cutting in timber areas with relation to fire hazards.

WARNING SENT TO SMALL BANKS

Indianapolis Police See Evidence of Another Outbreak Following Attempts Wednesday Night

Indianapolis Taxi Driver Tells Story
at Seymour Bearing on Looting of Charlottesville Bank

(By United Press)

Indianapolis, Ind., April 17—Police today sent out a warning to small banks throughout the state to watch out for robbers tonight.

The warning was based on attempted bank robberies at Pine Village, Jolietville and Rosstown last night. Rosstown and Jolietville are about 25 miles northeast of Indianapolis.

In all three cases, the robbers gained entry to the banks, but were frightened away before they had succeeded in opening the vaults.

The police also interpreted the theft of an acetelyne gas tank and an electric drill outfit from a local machine shop as a sign of coming yegg activity.

Seymour, Ind., April 17—A story of being kidnapped by bank bandits and held captive for nearly 24 hours most of which he was unconscious, was told police here today by Gene Hinton, Indianapolis taxi cab driver.

Police linked Hinton's story with the $2,000 bank robbery at Charlottesville, Ind., yesterday.

Hinton staggered into police headquarters early today and told police he took three men passengers in Indianapolis yesterday morning who told him they wanted to drive about ten miles in the country.

He said he drove the men east of Greenfield and suddenly the trio overpowered him, bound and gagged him and then drove on.

A little later they stopped in a small town, Hinton said. He was in the bottom of the car and could not see exactly where they were. Two men got out and in a short time returned and threw money in the back compartment and the auto drove rapidly on.

The next thing he remembers, Hinton said, he was losing consciousness. He did not know whether he was slugged or drugged.

When he came to, the auto was parked at the side of a road near Seymour. The men were counting money. They threw him out of the car and told him to "beat it." He walked into town and notified police.

He is held pending the arrival of Indianapolis police to question him.

TUESDAY WILL BE A BUSY DAY FOR STECH

Justice of Peace, Including Unusual Account Suit

ONE CASE FOR POSSESSION

Two suits have been set for trial in Justice Stech's court on next Tuesday. In the case of Ed Miller against John Thompson, a suit on an account filed last week, in which the plaintiff demanded judgment, the defendant has now filed a cross-complaint and a set-off in which he demands judgment from the plaintiff in the sum of $195.

The cross-complaint is in three paragraphs, and alleges that instead of owing the plaintiff, that the plaintiff owes him, and an itemized account is filed with the action. The case will be heard at 1:30 in the afternoon.

William M. Blackledge is plaintiff in a suit filed against Lon Row, for possession of property in Union township, and with the demand for $10 damages. This case will be heard on that day at 9 o'clock.

SCHOOL PRINCIPALS ARE GUESTS

Township Principals Entertain
Kiwanis Club Today

The high school principals of the schools of Rush county were the guests today at the weekly luncheon of the Kiwanis club, when they became acquainted with the local club members and made quite an impression with them as executives of the schools.

All of the high school principals were in attendance excepting three, who were detained at their schools. Each gave a short talk, pointing out the good things as well as the other things that an educator has to meet in his daily vocation.

The principals remained in Rushville this afternoon for their regular session with county school superintendent B. D. Farthing.

COOLIDGE TO SPEAK ON CAMPAIGN ISSUES

Will Make Plain Unfrilled Statement
When he Addresses Newspaper
Editors Next Week

By LAWRENCE MARTIN

Washington, April 17—President Coolidge intends to make a plain unfrilled statement of the issues of the presidential campaign as he sees them when he addresses newspaper editors in New York next week.

It is desirable in Mr. Coolidge's opinion that the public be always informed as to what it may expect from him and his administration, providing they are returned to power. He has clear ideas of the issues and both he and his advisors agree that there is no reason why the president should not at once take a definite stand upon them.

Nothing new or startling need be of principals in the forthcoming speech.

The principal issue, as the president sees it, is whether the country is to have stability, or instability; ordered and evenly proceeding government or hodge podge government pulled at cross purposes by numerous groups. His whole appeal will be for setting things in order so that the country can "settle down" to a period of quiet and calm.

CARL MORRIS WILL BE BURIED IN EAST HILL

Remains of Singer, Who Died in San Diego, Will Reach Home of Parents Sunday

FUNERAL MONDAY MORNING

The body of Carl Morris, former Rush county boy who died suddenly at San Diego, California, late Monday, will arrive at Greenfield, where his parents live, at 11:40 o'clock Sunday morning, according to John H. Morris, the father, who was here today making local arrangements for the funeral.

The remains will be taken to the Morris home in Greenfield and funeral services will be held there Monday morning at nine o'clock, following which the cortege will drive to Rushville for interment in East Hill cemetery. Short services will be held at East Hill chapel as soon as the cortege arrives, which will be about eleven o'clock. Friends may view the remains at the Morris home in Greenfield Sunday afternoon.

A letter written by the deceased last Friday was received by his parents Wednesday. Although he had not been well, as the result of an attack of the influenza during the past winter, Mr. Morris said nothing in his letter about being worse, and apparently was very cheerful. His parents had attempted to persuade him to come home after he recovered from the influenza, but he had decided to wait until the latter part of next month. Further details regarding his death, which was sudden, are expected in a few days.

Mr. Morris had made a name for himself as a baritone soloist.

REHEARSING NOW FOR CLASS PLAY

Rushville Seniors Have Selected
"Daddy Long Legs" And Will Give
it Two Nights

AT ANNEX APRIL 24-25

Its Human Appeal and Wholesome
The Audiences

Rehearsals for Daddy Long Legs, which will be presented April 24-25 at the Graham Annex by members of the Senior class of the high school, are now in progress. Miss Hamrick, who is coaching the seniors' presentation, reports very favorably the work that is being done and the splendid spirit and enthusiasm displayed by those taking part.

The play is not new. The story, Daddy Long Legs, first appeared in letter form serially, in the Ladies' Home Journal. Later it was dramatized and had a successful run in New York with Ruth Chatterton in the role of Judy. Later, Mary Pickford starred in a screen version. Well known as it is, the play is not one to be forgotten. Its human appeal and wholesome humor will make it a delight to audiences as long as there are plays.

In the seniors' presentation of the play, Jean Merkle will play Judy, with Douglas Morris as Daddy Long Legs. Others in the cast are: Beulah Phillips, Rena Mae Norris, Mildred Retherford, Margaret Oster, Hazel Dugle, Mary Elizabeth Beale, Virginia Hogsett, Helen Spivey, John Kendall, Wallace Cooover, Walter Eakins, William Blackledge, Francis Mattox, Elizabeth Manning and Dorothy Beeraft.

Tickets for the two performances are now selling and are in the hands of grade and high school students.

Importing of Strikebreakers at Harlan, Ky., May Cause it to Flare

Harlan, Ky., April 17—Trouble was smouldering here today with 3,000 miners idle and the largest mine threatening to bring in non-union workers.

There was nothing definite to indicate when strikebreakers will be brought in, but it is understood labor brokers in the north are hiring the men and are arranging to ship them to the Kentucky coal fields this week or next.

Both sides are settling down for a long strike.

Woman With "Fatherless" Children Gets "Easy" Money

A strange woman with two alleged fatherless children gathered up several dollars with a story of poverty and distress, Wednesday, but before she got out of the city, she was seen to join a man in an automobile. The pair escaped before anything was done to punish them for begging.

The woman went about the streets with her children, asking for small change. She said she and the children were traveling through the country when the wagon they were using broke, and they had no money to have it repaired. Few questioned her story and nearly everyone who heard it gave her 10 or 15 cents. It is estimated that she made quite a haul.

One of the men who "donated" saw her sitting in an automobile with a man, near a gasoline-filling station, where they had been spending some of their "easy" money.

CONNERSVILLE TWO FIRSTS

Rushville School Finishes Second in
One Division—Total Grades and
Standing

The winners in the Sixth District Latin contest, held in this city April 5, have just been announced, with Connersville pupils winning first places in the first and third divisions, Brookville taking first in the second division and Richmond finishing first in the fourth division.

Rushville finished second in the first division, sixth place in the second division and fourth place in the fourth division, with no entrant in the third division. Gings, however, finished ninth in this division.

The Latin contest for the district was in charge of Miss Helen Jaehne and the papers were sent to another district to be graded. The contest was conducted in the four divisions, each being for pupils in their relative class standing.

The summary of the grades and other standing of all pupils, is as follows:

- Division I
1—Inez Harvey, Connersville, 94.
2—Alta Fowl, Rushville, 91.
3—Chalmers Gilbert, Straughn, 89.
4—Jane Keenr, Knightstown, 89.
5—Elva Smith, Shelbyville, 88.
6—Josephine Yarding, Shelbyville, 87.

War Mothers to Sell Carnations on Streets May 10

Carnation Day will be observed here on Saturday, May 10, it was announced today, by the Rush county chapter of War Mothers, who will sell carnations on the streets as a means of raising money for the disabled veterans of the World War.

It was announced by the War Mothers that Mayor Walter R. Thomas had given his consent for the selling of carnations.

It is customary to observe Carnation Day on the day before Mothers' Day, which falls on the second Sunday in May.

HOOSIER POET IS SPEAKER

William Marshall on nKights Tem-
plar Ladies Night

Rushville Commandary, Knights Templar, entertained with their annual Ladies Night Wednesday evening at the Masonic Temple, with a banquet and entertainment.

There were 157 present for the banquet, and this was followed by the entertainment, which was given by William Marshall of Indianapolis, noted poet and humorist, who also is a feature writer for the Indianapolis News. His part of the program was one of the best given in recent years at the annual affair.

Mrs. C. E. Walden and Miss Helen Jaehne of this city, also provided vocal numbers during the evening.

TO CONSULT WITH THEIR GOVERNMENT

Allied Representatives on Reparations Commission Reach Decision
on Expert's Report

GERMAN NOTE IS DISCUSSED

(By United Press)

Paris, April 17—Representatives of the allied governments on the reparations commission decided today to send to their governments parts of the experts' commission report on reparations in which they are interested.

The commission met at 10:30 a. m. to discuss the German communication accepting the Dawes report in principle as a basis for settlement of the tangled reparations question.

The German acceptance was delivered late Wednesday. It is a brief document accepting the Dawes report as a basis for solution of the long argued problem.

Owing to the brevity of the German note the Paris press today is unanimous in believing conditions may come later.

"Germany must be impressed early," LeMatin said. "Certain important laws must be passed and put into execution before the sincerity of her acceptance is convincing."

U. S. FLIERS WAIT FOR ARRIVAL OF LEADER

Leaking Crank Responsible For Major Martin's Plane Being Forced Down

BRITISH RESUME FLIGHT

(By United Press)

Cordova, Alaska, April 17—The United States army round the world flight was held up at Chignik today as the 3 planes which reached that fishing station Tuesday waited for arrival of Major Frederick Martin in the air cruiser Seattle.

Martin and his mechanic, Sergeant Harvey, were with their plane which was reported being towed to Tanaka after being forced to descend near Portage Bay.

Radiograms from the destroyer Hull, which found the two airmen, said the Seattle would need repairing before it could proceed to Chignik. A leaking crank case was reported as the cause of the big plane's forced descent, which caused hours of anxiety before the air cruiser was located.

Athens, April 17—The British round the world flight was resumed today when the big amphibian plane commanded by Major Stuart MacLaren took off from the aerodrome at Old Phaleron for Cairo.

The airmen hoped to make the long trip in a single non-stop flight, one of the longest legs of the world-girdling effort.

ACCUSED MAN DIES

Kansas City, Mo., April 17—John M. Moore, deposed president of the Fidelity National Bank and Trust Company, Kansas City, accused of embezzling $600,000 of the bank's funds died here today. He was stricken Friday after discovery of his alleged defalcation.

FOR EMPLOYMENT OF H. S. PUPILS

nounces That His Office Will Be Clearing House

PUPILS NAMES ON FILE

All Records And Qualifications of all
Who Are Willing to Accept Employment

Eugene B. Butler, principal of the high school, today announced that his office had been made a clearing house for the employment of students of the junior and senior high school, after school hours, and for the vacation period.

School records and qualifications of all pupils who will accept employment are on file and persons who can use them to advantage in spring cleaning or for permanent summer work, are advised to get in touch with Mr. Butler's office at the Graham high school building at once.

The announcement is addressed to "The employers of persons under eighteen years of age," and is as follows:

Through my office, as Principal of the Rushville High School, we are endeavoring to find suitable and available positions for our young people, for mornings and evening during the school day, for Saturdays and for the summer vacation period. Our object is to bring the right position and the right worker together through our recommendations.

No charges will be made for this service, as we believe it to be a part of the work of the public schools of this city. We have on file the school records and special qualifications of all students of the Junior and Senior High School who will accept employment, and whom you may legally employ. In this way we can give you a select number of applicants for the vacancies you may have from time to time.

We ask your cooperation in this work and hope that we may be of service to you. Will you call on us when you are in need of workers? Our phone number is 1023. No piece of work is too small to list with us.

Yours very truly,
EUGENE B. BUTLER
Principal of Rushville High School

BONUS AND TAX BILLS ARE BEING DELAYED

Senate Disputes Prevent Measures
From Coming Before Body For Any Action

READY FOR DEBATE FOR WEEK

Washington, April 17—The bonus bill and tax reduction today were stalled behind obstacles that threatened seriously to delay their final passage.

Senate disputes have prevented these measures from coming before the senate and unless that body decides to urge its usual Easter recess the adjusted compensation bill cannot be taken up before next week.

Both the bonus and the tax bill have been ready for discussion for nearly a week.

Senator Curtis, who will be in charge of the bonus bill on the floor, has made arrangements to get it up as soon as the immigration bill is disposed of, but other pending matters may further delay action.

Only a little more than six weeks remain before the political conventions. The bonus will take a week and the tax bill—at the most conservative estimates—will require four weeks.

Sen. Watson's Mother Lies in A
Dying Condition

Winchester, Ind., April 17—Senator and Mrs. James E. Watson are constant watchers at the bedside of Mrs. Mary E. Watson, mother of the senator, who lies in a dying condition at her little home here.

The sufferer, who recently celebrated her 91st birthday, is in a semi-conscious condition and physicians say the end is only a matter of hours.

IN HANDS OF A RECEIVER

Farmers Co-operative Elevator Co., at Arcadia is a Failure

Noblesville, Ind., April 17—The Farmers' Cooperative Elevator company at Arcadia, near here, was in the hands of a receiver today. Petition for receivership was filed by A. B. Good, who alleged that the company was practically insolvent. The elevator has been under co-operative ownership for four years.

LEGION CONTEST WELL UNDER WAY

All Boys and Girls Are Eligible to Compete For National Prizes in Cash Awards

(By United Press)
Indianapolis, Ind., April 17—The American Legion, National Essay Contest, having started April 1, is well on its way and reports coming in to national headquarters here show great interest among the school children of the United States. The contest will close June 15.

The subject assigned for this year's essay is: "Why Communism is a Menace to Americanism." All boys and girls from 12 to 18 are eligible. The essays will be limited to one from each person, the essays not to be over 500 words long. Spelling, penmanship and neatness will be considered, as will also the age of the contestant.

County Superintendents of Schools are asked to appoint a committee of three to judge the best essay for his county. The first prize in each State will be a silver medal, the second a bronze medal and the third a certificate of merit.

The winning essay in each county will be forwarded to the department of Americanism chairman of the American Legion not later than July 10. The awards will be announced a few weeks later by a national committee, still to be named.

The national prizes will be, first prize $750, second prize $500 and third prize $250.

Farm Bureau Head Refuses to Serve On G. O. P. Committee

Indianapolis, Ind., April 17—W. H. Settle, president of the Indiana Farm Bureau Federation, today declined the appointment as chairman of the sub-committee on agriculture of the Republican State committee. In a letter to Clyde A. Walb, Republican state chairman, Settle said his connection with one political party might hamper the work of the federation.

"Our organization is non-political," he said, "and we desire to work with all parties in the interest of agricultural legislation."

Judge Ellis of Anderson Rules of Constitutionality of Statute

Anderson, Ind., April 17—In a ruling on the $25,000 damage suit of James A. Pearson against the Nicholson File Company, Judge Ellis upheld the state compensation law.

Attorneys for the company attacked the law as violating the state constitution because it fixed at 55 percent of the wages employee's wages the amount of compensation to be received.

WHEELER ON TRIAL AT OWN REQUEST

Montana Senator Wants to be Charged of Charge Brought Against Him at Great Falls

WILL QUIT AS "PROSECUTOR"

Will Give up Duties as Head of Daugherty Investigating Committee to Attend Own Trial

(By FRAZER EDWARDS)
Washington, April 17—At his own request Senator Wheeler, Montana, went "on trial" today before a committee of his colleagues in the senate.

Wheeler wants the cloud of the indictment returned against him by a federal grand jury in Great Falls, Mont., removed so that he can continue the investigation of former Attorney General Daugherty without his own fitness as a senator being questioned.

Before the senate "trial" begins, Wheeler may be arrested and arraigned before a United States commissioner. He made all arrangements to furnish bond for his appearance in court.

For the time being Wheeler will give up his duties as prosecutor of the Daugherty investigation to attend his own "trial." The Daugherty investigation will continue, however, with Chairman Brockhart taking over the task of examining witnesses.

Gordon Campbell, Montana oil man, from whom Wheeler is accused of accepting a retainer to secure oil leases after becoming senator, probably will be the first witness today, Chairman Borah announced.

Blair Coan, who was subpoenaed as an agent of the department of justice, although W. J. Burns, director of the bureau of investigation denied his connection with the department will also be on hand. Wheeler charged that Coan was employed by George B. Lockwood, secretary of the Republican national committee to investigate his record in Montana.

Other witnesses are former Representative Tom Stout, of Montana, and James Baldwin, Wheeler's law partner, who arrived yesterday in response to subpoenas.

Senator McNary, Oregon, will sit on the committee today in the place of Senator McLean, Connecticut, who resigned because of the press of other work.

TOURISTS REPORTED KILLED

Americans Slain in Albania, Unconfirmed Report Says

Athens, April 17—Two more American tourists have been killed near Tirania, Albania, according to an unconfirmed report received by the ministry of war here today.

The report does not give the names merely reporting an attack on the tourists by a band of 15 highwaymen and stating that two Americans were killed. Albanians are very anxious, the message adds, fearing grave consequences from this second attack.

Rome sources which ordinarily are well informed on Albanian affairs do not report any additional attacks on Americans and it may be the Greek advises are merely a confusion of the murders of the Americans DeLong and Coleman in the Tirania-Scoutaria highway two weeks ago last Sunday.

SHOT TWO AND TRIED SUICIDE

Thurman Smith Held at Kokomo For Attempted Murder

Kokomo, Ind., April 17—Thurman Smith, 36, is held in the county jail today on a charge of shooting with intent to kill following a triple shooting affray late yesterday.

Smith, according to police, shot Minnie Sapp and her daughter when the mother rejected his attentions and then turned the gun on himself.

Mrs. Sapp and her daughter are in the hospital with wounds which may prove serious. Smith was only slightly wounded.

Pre-Easter Services Continue at United Brethren Church

The pre-Easter services at the United Brethren church are drawing good crowds each night, and the topics have been most interesting, with the Rev. Mr. Glover, pastor of the Methodist church of Carthage, in charge of the nightly sermons. The meetings will continue each night this week, including Saturday night, beginning at 7:30 o'clock. The minister last night took for his subject "The Greatest Need of the church at the Present Time" taken from Acts 1, 8. The minister is a forceful speaker and his sermons have been well delivered all week. There was one accession to the church at the meeting last night.

IS NEWCOMER IN THE RACE

Elias W. Dulberger of Indianapolis to Speak Saturday Night

Elias W. Dulberger of Indianapolis, a newcomer in the race for the Republican nomination for governor, will speak at the court house assembly room Saturday evening at 7:30 o'clock, it was announced today. Dulberger, who is an attorney with offices in the Baldwin block, Delaware and Market streets, Indianapolis, is not known here and very few people knew that he was in the race until his cards appeared in public places a few days ago.

C. S. Batt of Terre Haute, a state senator and aspirant for the democratic nomination for governor, was scheduled to make an address in the court house assembly room this afternoon.

STATE HIGHWAYS WORKED UP WELL

Gravel and Stone Roads Survived The Winter in Best Shape of Any Previous Season

Drainage Has Played Important Part on Highway System, Because of Good Shape Now

Indianapolis, Ind., April 17—Gravel and stone surfaces in the state highway system are in better condition now than at a similar time in any previous year, despite the fact we are only a few days out of an unusually severe winter for highways.

This statement was made today by John D. Williams, director of the state roads body, who with Commissioner Earl Crawford, is back from touring northern Indiana roads.

Mr. Williams attributes the wonderful condition to systematic maintenance which calls for regular grading and scraping and frequent applications of metal. Drainage also plays an important part toward success, for if water is left to stand long on a road some weak spots are likely to develop, especially if that road is handling dense traffic which most state roads do.

Highway officials point out that right now most stone and gravel roads are in perfect condition and it is remarkable considering recent numerous thaws and freezes, rain and floods. However, it is possible these roads will cut some just as soon as all moisture leaves them and spring traffic becomes heavier. It is when roads are cheaper to pave than to maintain continually as gravel and stone, that the commission advocates hard-surfacing, although the car owner is rapidly recognizing that individually it is decidedly cheaper for him to operate his car over a paved road.

With auto registrations nearing the 600,000 mark and the state popular with thousands of tourists because of its good roads and rare scenic beauty, Indiana state highways will receive their hardest test this year, officials believe.

BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TODAY
Bible thoughts memorized will prove a precious heritage in after years.

Bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits; who forgiveth all thine iniquities; who healeth all thy diseases; who redeemeth thy life from destruction—Psalm 103:2, 4.

Honesty in Taxes

Everybody pays taxes. We may not own a bit of land or a house. We may not have a penny in the bank, or even a War Savings Stamp left over from the war.

But we pay taxes just as surely as if we owned town houses, country homes and broad acres of farm land, stocks and bonds, bank accounts, mills, factories or railroads.

We all have to eat or starve to death. If the owner of the property in which the grocer has his store has to pay higher taxes, the grocer has to pay higher rent and we have to pay the grocer higher prices for our food.

We all have to sleep if we want to live. If the person who owns the house where we live has to pay higher taxes, then we have to pay higher rent, of course.

If the railroads have to pay higher taxes, they have to charge higher rates to haul everything we consume, and naturally, the increase is tacked on to the paying end—that's where the ultimate consumer hooks on.

Out of every eight dollars of our national income, one dollar goes for taxes—federal, state and local.

This means that the boy whose expenses are eight dollars a week pays one dollar in taxes in the form of prices made higher by taxation.

The same ratio prevails, regardless of the cost of living, though you may not own a dollar's worth of taxable property.

When it comes to dealing with the question of taxes, we need to be more honest with ourselves.

We need to understand that we can not continue to load on overhead and not have our pocketbooks feel it.

Governments are like individuals. The only way they can economize is to spend less money. As long as people clamor for legislation to cure this or that fancied evil, just so long will taxes continue to be high and in some cases oppressive.

We Must Be Fair

It is the same love of justice which impels right-thinking Americans to desire that the government be ruthlessly cleansed of every taint and trace of corruption which also prevents them from condemning men without a fair trial, from taking irresponsible rumor for truth and to measure the accused and the witness by the same standards of character and possible motive.

It is all too easy to give away to

Hunt's Washington Letter

BY HARRY B. HUNT
NEA Service Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Wilbur Marsh, for 10 years Republican national committeeman from Iowa and for many years treasurer of the G. O. P., owes his downfall from his place of power on the national committee to the lowly river.

Clyde Herring, who recently exposed Marsh out of Iowa's place at the G. O. P. table, was a poor boy out in the prairies twenty-odd years ago when Hen Ford started making autos. He had a hunch farmers would buy automobiles. Apparently few folks, "business men", at least, agreed. For he found no competition when he applied for the Ford agency for the state. He got it.

Herring proceeded to plant more five-hundred-per-capita in Iowa than ever have been sold in any similar agricultural state. Orders from Iowa helped Ford satisfy his bankers more than once, in those early days, that the auto business had a future.

The result was that Herring became famous in Iowa along with the car he sold. He and it were the farmers' friends. The acquaintanceship and popularity developed by Herring as advance agent for the "Lizzies" were the big factors in landing him in the national committeeman's job.

PROPOSING the Republican National Committee, there is a growing belief that John T. Adams, present chairman, will not be retained to direct President Coolidge's campaign for re-election.

There have been evidences that Coolidge and Adams do not "team together", harmoniously. Adams has not evinced enthusiasm over Coolidge's course with respect to the Denby and Daugherty resignations, and in many other matters their mental processes and political plans have been widely divergent.

an emotion seeming to sweep the country, to acquiesce in the hasty lament that the whole government is rotten. But the hard thing, yet the duty, for honest and intelligent citizens is in all this business to keep things distinct which ought not to be mixed up; to hold clearly in mind the difference between worthy ends, or professions, and unprincipled and unfair means; to spare no man who has betrayed a public trust, yet not to rush off to join what may turn out to be only a hue and cry against officials unjustly assailed.

We all want to see justice done. But it cannot be done simply by cherishing amiable and proper sentiments. It requires straight and hard thinking. The country is obviously coming to do a little of that and could put up with a great deal more.

The ups and downs of the prolonged investigation at Washington have left many people much confused. It is hard for the ordinary man in the face of the conflicting evidences to keep his mind clear. And he is not helped by some of the public instructors who set out to enlighten him.

They tell him that he ought to be filled with consuming indignation against every man in official life whose name has been brought under suspicion. If he objects that the proof is not satisfactory, that discredited and unbelievable witnesses have been allowed to pour out their tales before the senatorial committee, then these moral guides turn upon him and say: "So you are willing to condone fraud. You approve of a government that is corrupt yet contented. You object to the uncovering of malfeasance and crime in our public life, because you fear it will hurt business. You have no word of condemnation for bribe-takers and corruptionists."

It is probably bookkeeping that Anderson is teaching in Sing Sing.

Disclosure that the Republican National Committee was "in on" the efforts to obtain the indictment of Senator Wheeler of Montana, whose investigation forced the Daugherty resignation, has not strengthened the committee's chairmanship in the president's regard. It is hinted that this situation, in fact, may play a big part in bringing about a showdown.

SHOULD Adams be sidetracked as a mahout for the G. O. P. elephant, the list of eligibles for his place would be headed by C. Bascom Siemp, now secretary to the president.

Siemp is Republican committeeman from Virginia. He is an old hand in the political game and he plays a more diplomatic hand than Adams. Since the old charges that he solicited money for postoffice appointments did not bar him from being named secretary, it is not believed Coolidge would regard them seriously as a bar to his becoming national chairman.

Of the 1094 delegates at the New York gathering, more than 300 will be women. A similar number, of more, will be alternates. The feminine representation on the floor will be the greatest in history, and the women are taking it seriously, determined that they will help "make history."

SPECIAL arrangements for women delegates at the convention are already being planned. Mrs. J. C. Cantrell of Georgetown, Ky., widow of former Congressman Cantrell, is in New York seeing that everything is made ready for the arrival and stay of the feminine delegates.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO TODAY

From Daily Republican
April 17, 1909

Homer Cole, the singing evangelist, who opened a meeting in Greenfield last night, was here today, the guest of relatives. He was guest of honor at a country dinner, showing that he possesses one of the fundamentals of a successful evangelist preacher.

Tom Hiner has secured a contract with all of the merchants on Main street for oiling the street and the work will begin the first of next week. This portion of the street will be given a trial before any more is used.

A. P. Waggoner's orchestra, that played free of charge at the Mca's Big Meeting during the winter months, has gained quite a reputation, and as a result has secured several engagements for the season. Among them are dates to play for the Raleigh, Milroy and New Salem communities.

T. E. McAlister, an old and experienced restaurant man of Indianapolis has moved here with his family and will install a quick lunch and dining room at the Grand Hotel. The entire place is being overhauled by Clyde Miller, the new manager.

The following are market prices paid today in Rushville: Eggs, per dozen 18 cents; corn 65; Oats 45; Wheat, wagon $1.34; number 2 red 1.38; Corn, number 3, 85 cents.

Col Jim Worth, the widely known Johnnie millhouse, who formerly lived southeast of the city, is here for a few days visiting friends and waiting for his big fruit farm near Andersonville to bring forth blossoms. The colonel still wears a bunch of sparklers and spends much of his time on the streets, greeting old friends.

The city of Rushville still has the pest house on its hands; last night was the time set for receiving bids to sell it, and the lone bid was rejected. It cost the city over $600 in lumber and material. Dr. F. M. Sparks offered a bid of $99 for it for the gun club, but the city turned it down.

Ward Hackleman will represent the Rushville high school in the state oratorical contest to be held at Noblesville May 14. The local boy's subject will be "The Rise of Indiana."

The oratorical association is composed of high schools from Frankfort, Lebanon, Lafayette, Crawfordsville, Noblesville, Tipton and Rushville.

Judge Will M. Sparks came home from Shelbyville today for a week's vacation before the opening of the Rush circuit court.

Miss Lorene Smith and Miss Ruth Spivey will entertain the Vesperian club with a six o'clock dinner at the home of the latter this evening.

New Treatment for Varicose or Swollen Veins

Swollen veins are dangerous and often burst. Sufferers are advised to get a two-ounce, original bottle of Emerald Oil (full strength) at any pharmacist and start to reduce the veins and bunshes at once.

Physicians recommend Emerald Oil; it is used in hospital practice and a small bottle will last a long time, because it is very concentrated and a little goes a long way. Apply night and morning with a soft brush as directed until the swelling is reduced to normal. It is guaranteed.

So marvelously powerful is Emerald Oil that enlarged glands, wens and even goitres disappear when used steadily.

Tennis Fans Organize And Plan to Improve Dirt Courts Until Permanent Ones Can be Installed

Tentative plans for a successful tennis season were made Wednesday evening at a meeting of tennis fans at the office of Russell B. Titsworth and the proposal to ask the city to put in asphalt courts in Memorial park was informally discussed.

Tennis players have been advocating the building of asphalt courts in the park for the past few weeks, on the theory that the city could have them installed at a very small cost by the company which is awarded the contract for the building of the asphalt boulevard through the new park addition.

Men interested in tennis have interviewed members of the council and the city park board and report that they find sentiment very favorable to the project.

It is stated that two double courts of asphalt could be built where the present courts are located, at a very small cost, while the contractors have all of their equipment near the park.

Such courts would be very substantial, it is pointed out, and would enable tennis fans to bring to Rushville some tennis champions for exhibition contests. An Indianapolis sporting goods house, has already promised to bring some champion tennis players to Rushville if the asphalt courts are constructed.

With decent courts, it is asserted that Rushville tennis players could get matches and tournaments with many surrounding cities and bring tennis up to the position it deserves in the city.

Rushville will get one more chance to get a hold on the tennis cup which

HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Sports Editor)

New York, April 17—Another of California's fairest daughters, a dashing 18-year-old miss, stands ready now for elevation to the throne as the international queen of tennis. Golden haired Helen Wills, the idol and the proud boast of all America, is the recognized champion of the United States, and if she wins the British championship at Wimbledon next June, she will be the legitimate champion of the world.

There is no official title as the world's champion tennis player, but there can be no dispute for a claim to the title made by the winner of the British and the American championships.

Just beginning to reach the best part of her game, the Californian girl has an even chance to win the British title against the best competition in the world. If Miss Suzanne Lenglen, the reigning queen of the court, does not defend her title, "little Helen" is a cinch to win.

The temperamental French star announced recently that her heart has been up for competition during the past two years. The city winning it three years in succession gets to keep it. Connorsville has won the tournament twice and hopes to win the cup permanently this year.

If permanent courts were built, it is pointed out that the park board could make rules governing their use so that children as well as grownups could get the benefit. Hours could be arranged for young children and for boys and girls and a certain time each day could be set aside for the more advanced tennis players.

The tennis club continued its organization last night by electing Dr. D. D. Drago president and Walter E. Smith, secretary-treasurer. It was decided $4.00 would be charged for membership, and that if 25 members could be obtained, enough money could be raised to put the dirt courts in condition until such time as the asphalt courts could be built.

was first in France, that she wanted to be on her best game for the glory of France in the Olympic games and that she could not defend her title at Wimbledon.

She may have other reasons for not wanting to try her game against Miss Wills at Wimbledon, but it is not courteous to question her motives or to doubt that her decision to stay away from the Wimbledon tournament was inspired by any reason other than the one given.

It is unfair to the Californian girl to say that she will win if Miss Lenglen does not play, because the inference would go along with it that she could not have won the championship if the real champion had been there to play her.

Miss Wills is going to England to play for the United States in the Wightman Cup matches, in the British championships and at the Olympic games. It is quite certain that he loves her country as deeply and as passionately as Miss Lenglen loves France. The American girl believes that she can get her best game by playing through the most strenuous preliminary competition in strange lands and under unfamiliar conditions. The French girl believes that she would hurt her game by playing through one tournament at Wimbledon on a court that ought to be as familiar to her as the path to the door of her home.

TIGHT PITCHING FEATURES GAMES

Good Form Being Shown May be Result of Good Conditioning or Curtailed use of New Balls

LOW SCORES PREVAILING

George Sisler, Star Manager of Browns, Brings Joy to Hearts of
Fans With His Performance

(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

New York, April 17—Tight pitching, unusual for this time of the year has been a feature of the infant season in the major leagues.

The good form shown by the pitchers may be result of good conditioning in the south or may come from the new rule curtailing the use of new balls, or may come from both.

Low score games prevailed in the two opening days. Lefty Cooper, the Pittsburgh veteran, let the Reds down with five hits yesterday. Jack Bentley, the Giant southpaw, gave the Robins four hits and held them listless for six innings. Jack Quinn, the veteran Red Sox spit-baller, held the slugging Yanks to six hits, three of which were scattered over the first eight innings. Ed Rommel, the Athletic star, stopped the Senators with five hits and Whitehill, the Detroit rookie, made the mauling Cleveland Indians content with seven hits.

With the Boston Braves on top, the National League standing presents a strange appearance today. Pictures of the standing probably will be taken by Christy Mathewson, to be hung on the walls of the club house for balm late in the fall. When the Brooklyn Robins were on top yesterday, Squire Ebbets told them: "You're out in front now, my lads, and stay there." But they had only one day of their glory. With the Phils in last place, the older league has one familiar appearance at least.

The American League also is slightly upset with the Cleveland Indians in last place and the Detroit Tigers on top. The other clubs are all tied for second place. The Tigers probably will remain within striking distance of their present position but the Indians will no trail for long.

The Yanks in losing to the Red Sox yesterday started to bear out some of the predictions that were made about them. The Yankees have to lose some games but champion teams do not fall asleep so soundly that they allow two double steals to be perpetrated on them in one inning.

George Sisler, the star manager of the Browns, again caused joy to the thousands of fans who are pulling for his comeback when he hit a double and two singles, scored a run and accepted eight chances perfectly.

SPORT CHATTER

Chicago—Frank Chance, manager of the White Sox is resting easy at the hospital following a minor operation for sinus trouble yesterday. He will remain in the hospital several days.

Chicago—Northwestern University baseball squad will appear in its first home game tomorrow afternoon when it meets the squad from Butler college.

Chicago—The baseball season of the northern Illinois college conference will open Saturday and run until June 1. The conference included Crane, Jr., North Park, Joliet, Elmhurst and Chicago normal.

Chicago—The University of Chicago baseball nine yesterday whipped the La Salle A. C. 8 to 1 in a game played on the University diamond.

Chicago—Strangler Lewis will defend his heavyweight wrestling championship here April 29 in a match with Michael Romano.

New York—Appeals to modify the six round rule for minors, to repeal the $10-per-round rule of preliminary boxers and approval of a new rule to permit champions to submit a list of six referees to the commission for champion bouts were made by the National Sports Alliance to the boxing commission.

KEEPING ONE EYE ON THE SCOREBOARD

*Yesterday's Hero: Casey Stengel. The home run hero of the worlds series took hold of one in the tenth inning and rode it out of the park, the Braves beating the Phils 4 to 3. Max Carey, antique Pirate outfielder, singled in the ninth, went down on a sacrifice, stole third and went home on Praynor's single with the run that beat the Reds 4 to 0. Whitehill, rookie pitcher who beat Cleveland out of second place in the American League last fall out-pitched Coveleskie in a pitchers battle and the Tigers beat the Indians 5 to 1. Heilman hit a homer with one on.

After cooping the first game, the Brooklyn Robins returned to normalcy and were beaten by the Giants 7 to 1. Fresh and Southworth hit homers.

Working hard on three pitchers, the Cubs beat the Cards 13 to 4. Alexander filled the bases in the ninth inning and got the side on a force out by Hornsby and a double play.

The Advance Literary Club will be entertained by Mrs. Lillian Jones at her home 212 East Eighth street, Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, and a large attendance is desired.

Mahoney Council 36 will meet at the Red Men hall Friday evening and degree work will be held, in connection with important business matters. It is urged that all members attend the meeting.

Several guests were entertained at dinner Wednesday evening at the home of Rev. and Mrs. E. G. McKibben, 321 West Seventh street, when they entertained Dr. Jomgward, a missionary who has spent seven years in the field in India. The Rev. and Mrs. McKibben were also assisted in the entertaining by Miss Mary Logan, who also has spent several years as a missionary in India and is now home on a furlough.

In observance of the Week of Prayer, the Missionary Society of the Main Street Christian church will hold a series of prayer meetings Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The place of the meetings and the leaders will be as follows:

At the home of Mrs. Wilbur Stiers, with Miss Florene Gronier as leader; at the home of Mrs. Lon Sexton, with Mrs. Will Abercrombie as leader; at the home of Mrs. C. E. Waldon, with Mrs. Ellis Downey as leader.

The Ladies Missionary society of the First United Presbyterian church was entertained Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Harry Kramer, in North Harrison street. An interesting program was rendered, with the devotional being led by Mrs. B. L. Traub. Miss Mary Fisher had charge of the study on the book, "The Debt Eternal" Dr. Jomgward, who has spent seven years as a missionary at India, was present at the meeting, and gave an interesting talk on her work in that country.

The First Presbyterian Missionary society was entertained Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Myra Kinnear, at her home in North Harrison street, and an interesting program on Japan was rendered. The program was as follows: "Stewardship", By Mrs. Gibson Wilson; "Interesting Points about Japan", Mrs. Bert Simpson; "The Religion of the People" by Miss Minnie Beale; "Liberalism in Japan" by Mrs. J. L. Cowing; story, "A Masterful Woman Searched", by Mrs. Harry Hall; "The Tea House Lost to Japan", by Miss Grace Spencer; "Some results of the Earthquake", Mrs. Mary Holmes; "An Unheard demonstration" Mrs. John Boyd; piano solos by Eloise Morris, Edward Wilson and Robert Kinnear.

The Musical numbers rendered at the county convention of Federated clubs held at Carthage Tuesday, were omitted from the report of the session. The opening number was a piano duet by the Misses Dorothy Sipe and Helen Gause of Carthage. Mrs. Carl Beher and Mrs. Derby Green of this city next sang the Federated Song, "America, the Beautiful". Says His Prescription Has Power f Influence Over Rheumatism

Mr. James H. Allen, of Rochester, N. Y., suffered for years with rheumatism. Many times this terrible disease left him helpless and unable to work.

He finally decided, after years of ceaseless study, that no one can be free from rheumatism until the accumulated impurities, commonly called uric acid deposits, were dissolved in the joints and muscles and expelled from the body.

He freely gave his discovery, which he called Allenru to others who took it, with what might be called marvelous success. After years of urging he decided to let sufferers everywhere know about his discovery through the newspapers. He has therefore instructed druggists everywhere to dispense Allenru with the understanding that if the first pint bottle does not show the way to complete recovery he will gladly return your money without comment. All druggists can supply you.

LED "DUAL LIFE"

Mrs. Anna Beswick, gray-haired matron, who, despite her years, finds herself the center of a melodramatic "dual life" adventure in Philadelphia. Held under bail of $5000, it is now alleged that this mother of 15 children lived part of her life as the wife of W. C. Martin, banker, and the other part as wife of Samuel Beswick, carpenter.

Miller of Carthage rendered, "My Heart at Thy Dear Voice" by Saint-Saens. A group of songs was given by Mrs. Beher, as follows: "One Fleeting Hour" and "I Heard You go By". The closing number on the musical program was a group of songs rendered by Mrs. Dailey of the Friends' church at Carthage. Miss Dorothy Sparks of this city accompanied the Rushville singers in their selections.

WIFE FIGHTING THAW'S RELEASE

Evelyn Nesbit, Battling for Heritage of Her Boy, Takes Active Part in Trial

Believes She May Unnerve Thaw and Sway the Jury to Oppose His Release From Asylum

By FRANK GETTY
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

Philadelphia, April 17—The "climax" of the Thaw sanity trial turned into an amazing anti-climax today when the slayer of Stanford White took the stand and left it without being questioned.

Thaw's counsel, announcing that Mrs. Mary Thaw, Harry's mother was ill, immediately rested their case.

Parties opposed to Thaw's release were caught unawares by the action of Judge Patterson in putting Thaw on the stand and then turning him over to the opposition.

After hurried consultation they announced "no questions" and court adjourned until afternoon.

A murmur of interest ran through the court room where the trial of Thaw's right to freedom among his fellow men is being held.

A portly grey haired figure strode forward.

Men and women—there was a majority of the latter in the room—sat forward in their seats or rose to catch a glimpse of Stanford White's slayer as he entered the state enclosure beside the judge's bench.

The spectators saw in the dignified figure in the chair little traces of the gay-hearted spendthrift Pittsburgh youth who set tongues of New York and Paris wagging with his extravagance a quarter of a century ago. It was a heavy featured man, past middle age with thoughtful and rigidly composed features who appeared today to establish in open court his claims to sanity.

Philadelphia, April 17—In the pathway of freedom being smoothed for Harry K. Thaw by one of the most impressive and complete array of alienists and doctors ever called today, arose the figure of his wife, for whom he killed Stanford White years ago, the crime that eventually led him to the asylum where he lives today.

The trial to determine Thaw's sanity and the right to freedom narrowed rapidly towards the inevitable, bitter duels of wits that probably holds the answer to its outcome.

Harry, pronounced sane by those called in his behalf was ready for the supreme test—his personal appearance on the stand. He had heard the worst said of him that cross examination of his witnesses could produce and was almost bravely eager to fire and answer the questions himself.

Evelyn Nesbit, fighting for the heritage of her boy—the boy she claims to be Harry's as well off-spring of days before their love died—was prepared to prompt, at her lawyer's elbow, other questions.

These questions arise from long passed incidents, things known only to Evelyn, things that happened when she was wife of the youth who now, a portly, puffy man, is the center of all eyes in the stuffy court room.

Evelyn believes the questions she can prompt may unnerve Thaw and sway the jury to oppose his release from the asylum in which he has spent the past seven years.

Just as the millionaire is supremely confident of his ability to come through with flying colors, the storm of cross-examination he knows awaits him, so is Evelyn certain she holds a clue to certain kinks in her former husband's brain.

BANDITRY WIPED OUT IN OKLAHOMA

25-Year Sentences in Leavenworth Were Passed Out to Six Survivors of Bandit Gang

Wm. Tilghman, With 40 Years Experience, Witnessed Passing of Four Noted Bandit Gangs

By S. A. BARKER
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)
Oklahoma City, Okla., April 17—Organized banditry has passed from Oklahoma.

Such was the comment of William (Bill) Tilghman, veteran peace officer and bandit-hunter, after 25-year sentences in Leavenworth federal prison were passed out to six survivors of the Al Spencer bandit gang a few days ago.

Tilghman spoke with finality, based upon more than 40 years' experience, in which he has witnessed the passing of four noted bandit gangs.

Bob Dalton, leader of the Dalton gang, met death at the hands of the law at Coffeyville, Kan., in 1882, when the band of desperadoes were partially wiped out and the remainder imprisoned.

Bill Dooin, "king of Oklahoma outlaws", was killed near Lawton in the old Indian Territory in 1896, after his band had been captured.

Henry Starr, who robbed more banks than any other outlaw in Oklahoma history, was slain while looting a bank in Arkansas in 1922. His associates separated and formed anew, according to officers, under the leadership of Al Spencer with headquarters in the Osage hills of northern Oklahoma.

A charge of cattle rustling and a penitentiary sentence featured Spencer's first run-in with the law in 1919. As a "trusty", he walked out of the Oklahoma penitentiary at McAlester a few months later and started his picturesque career.

Bank robberies in Oklahoma, Kansas and Arkansas were credited to the "Spencer gang," while officers sought vainly for the "phantom leader." While officers sought him, Spencer was seen in a hotel lobby here. When officers arrived a few minutes later, he was gone.

A few days later he was seen in Wichita, Kan., but slipped back into northern Oklahoma, well ahead of pursuit.

Born near Nowata, Spencer knew the Osage country trails and hiding places, which were a mystery to outsiders.

On the night of August 21 last, a M. K. & T. passenger train was halted in the desolate country near Okesa, Okla., and looted of more than $20,000 in Liberty bonds and currency, in genuine "wild west" fashion. While more than half a dozen bandits held passengers within the train and battered their way into the mail coaches, the gang leader, later established as Spencer, chatted unconcernedly with captive members of the crew upon current questions.

Posses under direction of Alva McDonald, United States deputy marshal, closed in upon the Osage country and herded more than a score of suspects into the Pawhuska jail a few weeks later.

But Spencer's uncanny luck, which carried him safely through the encircling cordon, deserted him near the little town of Caney, Kan., where he walked into an ambuscade of a federal posse and fell riddled with bullets without returning the fire. Several thousand dollars in bonds, stolen from the "Katy" train at Okesa, were found upon his body.

Curtis Kelly, Spencer's right-hand man and confidant, confessed complicity in the Okesa robbery and gave testimony that sent five companions with him to Leavenworth.

Frank Nash, a pardoned "lifer", university graduate and lawyer, protested his sentence. The others passed uncomplainingly.

The Coolidge forces have been completed with the appointment of a man and a woman manager in each county, and men and women managers in each district. Representatives are also being selected for every precinct. Mr. Emlison's plan is for a strong organization ready for any intensive work that may be necessary for the purpose of translating, via the ballot box, the Coolidge sentiment into thirty-three instructed delegates to the Republican national convention. Thus far Mr. Emlison has been conducting a modest campaign, finding, he says, a strong, crystallized sentiment favorable to the President exists in Indiana.

The Truth

About this Light-Six—plus proof on proof

THIS Studebaker Light-Six is the supreme value in the "thousand-dollar" class.

It offers, not a few, but scores of advantages. In its chassis it represents the best that modern engineering knows. In its steels and quality of construction it is identical with the costliest cars we build.

This is to offer you proofs. Then urge that you see it before paying $1,000 or more for a car.

Some evidence

The extra values which this car typifies have made Studebaker the largest builder of quality cars.

They have made these cars a sensation. Sales have almost trebled in three years. Last year 145,167 people paid $201,000,000 for Studebaker cars.

The multiplying demand has forced an investment of $50,000,000 in model plants and equipment. Of this, $38,000,000 has been spent in the past five years, so the plants are up-to-date.

The engineering department which designs and superintends this Light-Six costs $500,000 per year.

The machines which build it are modern and exact. 517 operations on this car are exact to 1/1000th of an inch. 122 operations are exact to one-half 1/1000th of an inch.

1,200 inspectors are employed to submit each car in the making to 32,000 inspections.

Infinite care

The steels are selected from 35 formulas, each one proved best by years of test for its purpose. On some we pay the makers 15% premium to get them exactly right.

The crankshafts are machined on all surfaces, as was done in the Liberty Airplane Motors. This to give perfect motor balance, at an extra cost to us of $600,000 yearly.

It has more Timken bearings than any other competitive car within $1,500 of its price.

cars in this class called in auditors to compare the operating costs. They made comparisons on 329 cars, running up to 25,000 miles.

It was found that this Studebaker Light-Six cost for operation 11.4% less than the average of its rivals. This figure included depreciation. That meant $207.50 saved on 25,000 miles. All because of this quality construction.

What it saves you

We build 150,000 cars yearly. All such major costs as engineering, dies, overhead, etc., are divided by 150,000.

We build in model plants, with modern machinery, which have immensely reduced the manufacturing costs.

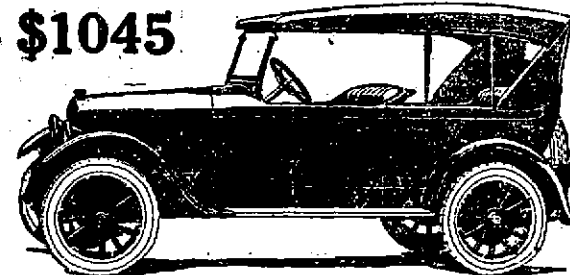

A car like this, built under ordinary conditions, would cost you from $200 to $400 more.

Learn, for your own sake, what that means to you.

Send for the book

Mail us the coupon below. We will send you free our new book that will inform you on five simple things which reveal the value of a car. For instance: It will enable you to look at any car and tell whether it's been cheapened to meet a price or offers true quality. It will tell you why some cars rattle at 20,000 miles and others don't. It shows one single point in a closed car which measures whether you're getting top or medium quality. The book is free—clip the coupon below.

Studebaker Light-Six Scores of extra values

Built by the leader in the fine-car class. One of the cars for which people last year paid $201,000,000.

Built in a model $50,000,000 plant, producing 150,000 cars yearly. And saving you by quantity production from $200 to $400.

Built of the same steels, with the same care, as the costliest cars we make.

The equipment is unusual. The cushions are of genuine leather, and are ten inches deep.

Every part and detail accords with Studebaker traditions. And the name Studebaker has for 72 years stood for quality and class.

As Others See Us

IN ITS issue of March 5, the Gazette, of Hutchinson, Kansas, says:

"THE BRIGHT SIDE"

The Standard Oil Company gets into print often but never on account of trouble with its employees. Arthur Brisbane says the company is the best managed business organization in the world.

The entire oil business has been singularly free from labor troubles which have beset many of the other major industries. Reasons for this can be found in the fact of the rapid growth of the industry, the payment of relatively high wages and the shifting of producing and refining centers.

The oil companies, however, have not been content to allow harmony to rest entirely with conditions. Efforts have been made, in the Standard and other companies, to obtain the greatest harmony possible among the workers. The Standard of Indiana was a pioneer in fostering a policy granting employees, through their elected representatives, a voice in settlement of all questions affecting their welfare, as to wages, hours of labor and working conditions.

How the plan is working is expressed by Colonel Robert W. Stewart, chairman of the board of directors, who says:

"The greatest thing needed in American industry today is a better understanding between employees and management. The day of intolerant and drastic methods by either the leaders of capital or labor is past. Each needs the other, and the policy of establishing good-will, peace and understanding have been established between the management and employees of our company.

"For five years we have worked together in mutual esteem and trust. For the board of directors, I say to you that while the problems presented by the situation in the oil industry today are stupendous, we face them with a greater confidence because we feel that we have back of us the whole-hearted support of every man and woman in the Standard Oil Company (Indiana)."

The oil business has its virtues as well as its foibles, if conducted properly."

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) has been relatively free from labor troubles because justice, equity and fairness are fundamental to the organization.

Without loyalty, earnestness and complete harmony in its organization of 27,000 men and women, this Company would be unable to render to the thirty million people of the Middle West, the comprehensive service which they now enjoy and which is so essential to their commercial and domestic life.

ABSENCE OF FISH LADDERS IS NOTED

Not Unlawful to Snare Suckers, It is Pointed Out—Convictions in February

Indianapolis, Ind., April 17—On account of the interest fishermen now take in the protection and propagation of fish, the absence of fish ladders over many dams in this state is noticeable, George N. Mannfield, superintendent of the fish and game division of the state conservation department, in a bulletin issued to fish and game protective clubs.

According to Mannfield, Indiana laws provide for their installation, but it has been learned that they are of no use in leading game fish from the waters below a dam to those above. This is the experience in both this and foreign countries. Our law was passed at a time when it was taken for granted that a fish ladder was useful for aquatic life to go upstream over a dam.

Mannfield says an eastern state several years ago constructed a fish ladder at a cost of $60,000 but no fish ever went over it. In his opinion it is not only costly but useless to construct fish ladders for the following reasons:

Ice damages and often destroys

them; spring floods render them useless, either tearing them away or filling them with debris; they are rendered ineffective by too much water at some seasons; at others by none going through; the fish do not find the entrance, the same being placed wrong or too small; if the ladder is covered and dark, game fish will not enter; fish prefer to leap a dam and do it if it is not too high, or go around it at flood times.

"We are frequently asked whether it is unlawful to snare suckers. Under the Indiana fish laws it is not unlawful, nor is it unlawful to use a grappling hook, or to take suckers with the hands. This applies also to taking carp, dog fish and gar fish. A person also can use as many rods or throw lines as he likes, provided he actually fishes with them and does not fasten them. When fastened they become set lines. A person may only use one set line, or one trot line. On such line no more than 50 hooks can be placed, nor must the hooks be smaller than one-half inch from point to shank. Hooks of any size may be used on a throw line."

Mannfield's bulletin said that game wardens brought about 40 convictions for violation of fish and game laws in February. The division closed its books April 1 for applications for fish, and orders received from now on will be placed on the list to receive stock fish in 1925, unless the amount of fish reared this year is sufficient to fill them.

MY DAUGHTER WOULD CRY AT EVERYTHING

Nervous and Irritable. By Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Became Entirely Normal

Clinton, Wisconsin.—"My daughter was in a very run-down condition, and was irritable, and would cry at every little thing she was so weak and nervous. As Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had helped me when I was a girl I gave it to her to build her up, and the results were all that we could wish for. I wish that every mother with growing girls would try it for these troubles girls often have. I had taken it myself before my girl was born, and she was one of the nicest babies any one could wish to have. I recommend the Vegetable Compound to women and girls and cannot praise it too highly."—Mrs. L. A. HOLFORD, Box 48, Clinton, Wisconsin.

Mothers can depend upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to relieve their daughters of those troubles they so often have. They know from experience the value of the Vegetable Compound in the treatment of these complaints and many, like Mrs. Holford, give it to their daughters.

IMPROVEMENT RESOLUTION
NO. 380A Resolution For The Improvement of The Park Boulevard in Memorial Park in The City of Rushville, Indiana

Be it resolved by the Common Council of the City of Rushville, Indiana, that it is deemed necessary to improve Park Boulevard in Memorial Park in the city of Rushville, Indiana, commencing at a stone at the intersection of Jackson and Eleventh streets in Rushville, Indiana, and extending North 97 1/2 feet; thence north 35 degrees 40' east, 171.5 feet; thence north 33 degrees 35' East, 246.75 feet; thence North 33 degrees 38' East, 270.5 feet; thence North 29 degrees 28' East, 155.5 feet; thence North 14 degrees 53' East, 320.8 feet; thence North 16 degrees 17' East, 460.6 feet; thence North 16 degrees 17' East 151.5 feet; thence North 60 degrees 4' East, 570 feet, to the center of the Rushville and Dunreith Turnpike, said line as above described being parallel to and about 45 feet East and South of Hodge's Branch.

Also commencing at the intersection of Twelfth Street and the above named line and extending to the Northwest a distance of about 100 feet, by grading and paving the roadway of said Park Boulevard with crushed stone with oil penetration, asphaltic concrete or crushed stone base, vitrified brick on crushed stone base or wood block on crushed stone base.

That the said Boulevard be paved twenty (20) feet wide throughout its entire length with five (5) feet of earth lawn on either side with a side gutter along the entire east side of said Park Boulevard and that there shall also be constructed six concrete catch basins with vitrified pipe or galvanized pipe leading from them to Hodge's Branch together with an outlet head wall for each, and that there shall also be constructed as a part of said improvement a fourteen (14) foot reinforced concrete bridge over Hodge's Branch, all in accordance with the plans, profiles, details and specifications on file in the Clerk's office of said City of Rushville, Indiana, and such improvement is now ordered.

The cost of said improvement shall be paid from the funds now in the hands of the City Treasurer, being funds received from a bond issue made for the purpose of purchasing said Memorial Park and making improvements therein. All proceedings had and work done in making of said improvement and payment therefor shall be as provided for in act of the General Assembly of the State of Indiana, entitled "An Act Concerning Municipal Corporations" approved March, 6, 1905, and all act amendatory and supplementary thereto.

And said Common Council now fixes the 6TH DAY OF MAY, 1924, at seven thirty P. M. as the date upon which remonstrances may be filed by persons interested in or affected by said described public improvement, and notice shall be given that said Common Council will meet in the Council Chamber of said City at said time for the purpose of hearing and considering any remonstrances which may have been filed or which may be presented to be heard in connection with the construction of said improvement and will at said time decide whether the benefits from the making of such improvement will equal the estimated costs thereof as estimated by the City Civil Engineer.

COOLIDGE HOME IN NORTHAMPTON

The left half of this modest double in Northampton, Mass., has been the home of President Coolidge for many years. When he was governor of Massachusetts he and Mrs. Coolidge lived in an unpretentious suite in a small Boston hotel.

FARM HOME OF THE COOLIDGES

This is where Calvin Coolidge took the "midnight oath." It has become another American shrine. Already many thousands have visited the Coolidge homestead, and others will go there for generations to come.

WHERE COOLIDGE TOOK OATH AS PRESIDENT

Arthur I. Keller has painted the scene of President Coolidge's induction into office in this farm home sitting room at 2:47 o'clock on a Friday morning last August. This photograph shows the President's father, Colonel John Coolidge, at the table where the oath was administered.

PRESIDENT IS STUDYING COUNTRY'S BIG PROBLEMS

President Coolidge is making an organized study of the nation's chief problems and is calling the best informed men on each subject to the White House to discuss these matters in detail and obtain recommendations for the best means of proceeding to remedy conditions on a basis that will give the largest satisfaction and fullest relief. He is gathering information about agriculture, the railroads, markets for farm produce, industry, and working conditions.

This new light on the President's activity is gleaned from an article by French Strother, in the World's Work for April. Mr. Strother recently spent a week at the White House for the purpose of gathering material for this article. He came into intimate contact with the president in his study, at dinner, and in other phases of his home life.

"The president says little and listens much," Mr. Strother writes. "The day's work ends at—when it ends. If he is fortunate it may be at 4:30 o'clock, when he can go for a walk or a horseback ride. If less fortunate it may not end until 6 o'clock with barely time left to prepare for dinner. In another sense it practically never ends. His outstanding characteristic is hard, purposeful, continuous thinking. From this he rarely rests."

VILLAGE SMITHY CALLS ON COOLIDGE AT WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON, D. C.—(Special)—A village blacksmith, Philip Gleason, of Northampton, Mass., was a proud visitor at the White House recently. He is a close personal friend of President Coolidge, whom he has known for many years, and he dined and swapped yarns of the old days with his distinguished host. Mr. Gleason was one of the original "Coolidge for President" men. According to Mr. Gleason the visit was the best time he ever had in all his sixty-eight years. He had the President's attention while diplomats and statesmen cooled their heels outside.

PROSPERITY REFLECTED IN EMPLOYMENT REPORTS

WASHINGTON, D. C.—(Special)—Business conditions, the markets, and employment of labor are all in a healthy state over the country generally—a condition which is particularly pleasing to the supporters of President Coolidge and leaders of his party, as the nation's prosperity reflects great credit on Mr. Coolidge as a stabilizer and steady-going, constructive manager of public affairs.

It is of special interest to notice from the latest reports of the department of labor that employment in manufacturing industries increased 1.2 percent in February—this being the first general increase since last summer. This figure is based on reports from 8,222 establishments in 52 industries, covering 2,693,636 employees whose total earnings during one week in February were over seventy-two million dollars. Increases in employment are shown in 36 of the 52 industries and increases in earnings are reported in 45 industries. The fact that in 4,689 establishments in 43 industries there was an 8.6 percent increase in per capita earnings is taken as a demonstration that the individual wage earner is benefiting by increasing income as well as steady employment.

PRESIDENT COOLIDGE TO WORK ALL SUMMER

WASHINGTON, D. C.—(Special)—President Coolidge will remain on the job at the White House all summer. He has decided that business can be transacted more satisfactorily in Washington than anywhere else and has declined all offers of the use of handsome summer homes, which have been made to him by many persons. The President has been in the habit of going to his father's farm in Vermont to spend his vacations in the fields and at odd jobs, and he will not feel any discomfort in his regular work at the executive offices.

COOLIDGE ACTS HAVE

Recent Events Show President Enjoys Esteem of Populace—Editors Commendatory

Writing in the Nation's Business John Callan O'Laughlin introduces his subject in the March issue with this declaration:

"President Coolidge is profoundly determined, so far as in him lies, to promote the common welfare of the people of the United States. To achieve it he will not compromise with principle."

That this is the fixed impression of the public is brought to notice by events of the last few weeks. The strong showing of the president in the South Dakota primary (territory many thought would be lukewarm for a New Englander), and the general commendation of his new cabinet appointments are outstanding matters which serve to focus attention on the public estimate of the president and the extent to which he enjoys the confidence and good will of the populace.

The Rock of Salvation

The Indianapolis Star, among other Hoosier dailies, found in the vote for Coolidge in South Dakota nothing to give hope to the opposition and the Indianapolis News says the outcome should be encouraging to the supporters of Mr. Coolidge.

"As far as Mr. Coolidge is concerned," observes the News, "the people feel that he fell heir to considerable of a mess, which he is doing his best to clean up, and they see in him an honest and high minded man. Republicans would not find it easy to explain a turning away from him, unless indeed a reason should develop which is not now visible—even in the offing."

From the Springfield, Mass., Republican (independent) we read: "Since this crisis in the affairs of the government (referring to the Washington situation) had to come, Republicans throughout the country can not be reminded too insistently that the unsullied character of Calvin Coolidge is the rock of their salvation."

Talents Already Manifest

The Attica Ledger-Tribune, under the caption "KEEP COOLIDGE" says: "If there ever was a time when America needed a strong guiding hand in the pilot house of the ship of state, backed by a brain that is neither easy to influence nor too set to be convinced, that time is the present," and the Cannelton Enquirer sounds the sentiment of the southern part of the state when it says that "Coolidge has made good" and that he should be free of the interference of those who seek to hamper him for the effect of political gains. "His talents, already made manifest in his capable administrative acts, should have adequate opportunity for complete rededication to the service of his fellow citizens."

REPUBLICANS WANT PLACE IN THE SUN AT CLEVELAND

INDIANAPOLIS, (Special)—Notwithstanding the fact that President Coolidge already has over 400 delegates pledged to him and promises of enough more in the April conventions to assure his nomination, the prospects are for an exceptionally heavy vote for Coolidge in the Indiana primary on May 6.

Two reasons are being cited for this. First, the President has a large following in Indiana which will cast an "endorsement vote" as a means of registering approval of his administration, and second, the Hoosier Republicans favoring Coolidge naturally wish their delegation to have a place in the sun at Cleveland and they propose to roll up a vote for the President in the primary that will be impressive enough to gain full recognition for their state after the nominating is over. These Republicans point out that if they do not make the kind of showing for Coolidge in the primary that the party sentiment really warrants, Indiana might be at a disadvantage in party circles after the election.

There has been no deviation from the modest campaign which Ewing R. Emison, the Indiana Manager, embarked upon at the outset. This kind of a bid for support is thoroughly in harmony with the President's wishes. When he became a candidate for lieutenant-governor of Massachusetts, it is related, he simply wrote on a slip of paper "I am a candidate for lieutenant-governor." He promptly closed up the headquarters that was opened in Washington in the interest of his presidential nomination, being unwilling to sanction any activity in his behalf in the capital city.

FOR THE BOYS

"There are two things necessary for boys—they should work hard and behave themselves." That is what President Coolidge told a group of boys when he interrupted his work the other day to greet them. They had called to interest him in the country-wide celebration of Boy's Week, April 27 to May 3.

Mothers, Do This—

When the Children Cough, Rub Musterole on Throats and Chests

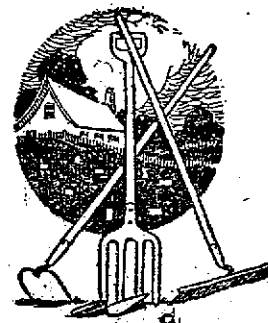

No telling how soon the symptoms may develop into croup, or worse. And then's when you're glad you have a jar of Musterole at hand to give prompt relief. It does not blister. As first aid, Musterole is excellent. Thousands of mothers know it. You should keep a jar ready for instant use. It is the remedy for adults, too. Relieves sore throat, bronchitis, tonsillitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, headache, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, chilblains, frost-bitten feet and colds of the chest (it may prevent pneumonia).

To Mothers: Musterole is now made in milder form for babies and small children. Ask for Children's Musterole.

Investigating the Investigator

These four men will decide whether or not Senator Burton K. Wheeler, spectacular head of the Daugherty investigation, is the victim of a "frame-up" intended to quiet his activities. It is charged that Wheeler accepted fees while in office and the investigator insists it is a plot to embarrass him. Left to right the committeemen are: Senators Caraway, Swanson, Sterling and Borah (chairman).

MOVIES

Seats on Sale For Picture

The seat sale for "The Covered Wagon", a big motion picture production, to be seen at the Princess Saturday, is now ready for the public. The big picture will be here one day only, with a matinee performance and the night show at 8:15. A special orchestra of 15 musicians follow the picture from the start, which adds much to it.

The undaunted spirit of Americans who left comfortable homes in the East and answered the call of "Westward Ho!" in the early forties is recorded in a masterly fashion in it. The picture is based on the book of the same name by Emerson Hough.

There is a fascination about the long line of white topped wagons creeping over westward which those who see the photoplay will not forget. It had the ring of truth and was in the spring.

for the most part spectacular the love interest is not absent. It is confined in a trite story entirely unworthy of the picture serving only to give Tully-Marshall and Ernest Torrence several opportunities for excellent characterizations.

If you want to see a picture with real thrills, adventure, humor, atmosphere and a corking love-story, drop in at the Castle theatre today where they're playing "The Hoosier Schoolmaster." It's the screen version of Edward Eggleston's widely-read novel and it's a faithful depiction of the Hoosier country during the period before the Civil War. Then, Indiana was harassed by bandits. No one knew who the guilty were but every one looked at his neighbor with suspicion. The Flat Creek District was not better than the rest of the country and perhaps a little bit worse.

To this section comes Ralph Hartsook the new schoolmaster. He is warned that his pupils will probably throw him out but he's willing to take the chance and stay. He rounds up the gang of bandits who are worrying the district—although the mob almost lynches him before he succeeds in doing it and falls in love with Hannah Thompson, the orphan girl, who according to the custom of the time has been "bound out" as a servant.

You'll laugh a great deal over "The

Refusal to Kiss Her is Given as Divorce Grounds

Indianapolis, Ind., April 17—Refusal to kiss her goodbye is given as one of the grounds for a divorce in a suit filed by Mrs. Kathryn C. Criswell.

Robbins C. Criswell began to treat her like a servant shortly after their marriage Aug. 25, 1923, she charges. When she complained of such treatment, she says, Criswell told her: "You ought to be proud to be my housekeeper, just see the social position it gives you."

Streets Are Not Public Garages, Gary Mayor Says

Gary, Ind., April 17—No longer may the streets of Gary be used as public garages for indigent auto owners.

Mayor R. O. Johnson has issued an edict that hereafter owners of cars who negligently leave their conveyances on the public right-of-way may wake up in the morning to find that they have left without trace.

All that will be necessary to locate the missing flivver will be a canvass of the various garages, where storage charges must be paid before the car will be released.

Child-birth

WHEN the little one arrives, you can have that moment more free from suffering than you have perhaps imagined. An eminent physician, expert in this science, has shown a first way. It was he who first produced the great remedy, "Mother's Friend." Mrs. C. J. Hartman, Scranton, Pa., says: "With my first two children I had a doctor and a nurse and then they had to use instruments. But with my last two children I used 'Mother's Friend' and had only a nurse; we had no time to get a doctor because I wasn't even sick—'Mother's Friend' or 'Mother's Friend' as our mothers and grandmothers did. But with my last two children I used 'Mother's Friend' and had only a nurse; we had no time to get a doctor because I wasn't even sick—'Mother's Friend' or 'Mother's Friend' as our mothers and grandmothers did. Constipation Is

Chiropractic Health Talk No. 61

By H. V. McCully, D. C., Ph. C.

I believe constipation is one of the most frequent abnormal conditions found among human ills.

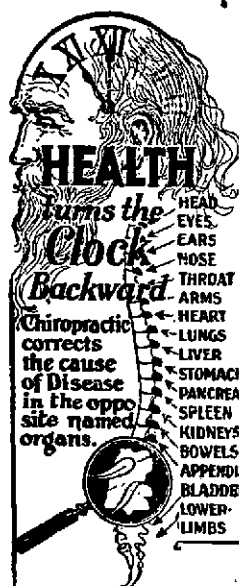

I also believe that a vast majority of the more serious conditions are the result of that continual bowel inactivity.

Constipation divides itself into two classes—true constipation and costiveness.

True constipation is a condition where the muscular walls of the intestines are relaxed, or one might say partially paralyzed and cannot force the contents of the bowel onward.

Costiveness is brought on by lack of secretions that should be emptied into the intestinal tract from the liver, spleen, pancreas intestinal walls, etc., causing the contents of the bowel to be dry and without proper lubrication.

In either form our adjustments correct the cause and bring back a state of normality.

HEALTH turns the Clock Backward
Chiropractic corrects the cause of Disease in the opposite named organs.
The lower nerve under the magnifying glass is pinched by a misaligned joint. Pinched nerves cannot transmit healthful impulses. Chiropractic adjusting removes the pressure. The upper nerve is free as nature intends.

Rushville Man Furnishes Proof

"I had been a constant sufferer for several years with constipation. I have tried various drugs but found the results from them only temporary. Finally through continued use of purgatives, my stomach began to bother me. I developed a tired, worn-out feeling and had spells of dizziness.

I am only too glad to say that after a series of Chiropractic Adjustments from Dr. McCully, I am relieved of my former trouble. Nothing but straight Chiropractic Adjustments were used."

ASKS U. S. HELP IN FIGHT ON FIRES

Government Weather Bureaus Will Be Asked to Aid in Supplying Special Reports

Madison, Wis., April 17—A program for intensive research as to means of controlling forest fires has been announced by a committee of Federal administrative and research foresters, meeting in connection with the Forest Products Laboratory here.

The committee report stresses paramount importance of co-operation of weather forecasters in determining "fire weather conditions," and aiding in control of fires by designating areas to which the fire is most likely to spread.

Methods have been devised, according to the committee, or accurately designating areas where greatest care must be taken to prevent fires. The report also recommends study of lightning storms, held responsible for a large majority of fires.

Over $17,000 worth of timber is destroyed by fires annually, it is estimated.

Principal points in the foresters' program follow:

1. A special effort should be made to put to practical use all available statistics on fires, placing emphasis on nature, extent and appraisal of fire damages.

2. Weather bureaus in Washington, D. C., Chicago, Denver and San Francisco will be requested to furnish a special weather report to forest officials in the regions covered by each bureau. This data will be studied to determine areas in which fires are likely to occur.

3. An appropriation will be requested for assigning meteorologists to the forest service and weather bureau to assist in fire hazard studies. It is recommended that observation of lightning storms be undertaken in Western districts.

4. Investigations are recommended to determine inflammability of forest growths, with study of actual fires with reference to such points, as rate of spread, general behavior and control.

5. Supervision of cutting in timber areas with relation to fire hazards.

The Pre-Easter services which are in progress at the church are attracting fair sized crowds and much good is being accomplished. There have been two confessions. Splendid singing by the choir with special numbers each evening add much to the enthusiasm manifested in the services. A welcome is extended to all to attend Easter Sunday which will be a great day as the culmination to these meetings.

The Missionary Society held two meetings this week on Tuesday in observance of the Easter week of prayer, one at Mrs. Caise Maury's and one at Mrs. Lola M. Holden's. There will also be the final meeting for all at the church Thursday afternoon at 2:30 when an Easter prayer service will be observed.

Mrs. Vera Stone, Los Angeles woman, found beaten to death in her apartment and believed to be the victim of another woman's jealousy. In many ways the case resembles the famous "hammer murder" case.
